Bandit Guilty Of Loan Office Robbery

William Brady Trigg, 35-year-old Chicago gangster who has been positively connected with the Howard Hardin gangland assassination, Wednesday was given long prison terms by a Criminal Court 2 jury which found him guilty of robbing the C. Medias Clothing and Loan Co., 506 Indiana, Oct. 10, 1953.

Described as "highly-polished" and said to be "one of the most vicious and dangerous criminals ever encountered here," Trigg was sentenced to the Indiana State Penitentiary at Michigan City for 20 years for armed robbery. He was also given 10-to-25 years for robbery. The sentences will be served concurrently.

Special Judge Robert Smith pronounced sentence after the finding of the jury which deliberated less than an hour and satisfied deputy prosecutors James E. Rocap, Jr., and Wilbur H. Grant for conviction on both counts and demanded maximum penalty on each. "It's time we showed these big-time operators from Chicago they can't come down here and rob our citizens and get away with it," the prosecutors hammered in their closing arguments.

TRIGG, dapper in an expensive blue gabardine suit and good-looking gray sport shirt, showed no emotion throughout the two-day trial and was extremely calm as the sentence was pronounced.

His Chicago girl friend, Gladys Pitts, broke into tears, while his brother, Ernest, looked downcast. Both witnessed the entire proceeding.

Mr. Rocap and Mr. Grant, assisted expertly by Det. Lt. Spurgeon Davenport and Det. Sgt. Garland Jones, wove an incontestable web of damning evidence around Trigg as his attorney, H. Perry Smith vainly attempted to refute it through cross-examination.

Trigg, personally unable to disprove any of the accusations or establish an alibi and realizing his prison record would be presented to the jury if he were to take the witness stand, could not produce a single defense witness and himself did not take the stand.

Local Car Dealers Draw Color Line In Hiring Of Needed Auto Mechanics

By JIM CUMMINGS
New car dealers in Indianapolis, indiscriminately gobbling up many a greenback from brown-skinned customers who are going into hock up to their ears to operate the latest and best cars, discriminate in their employment of mechanics and refuse to hire Negroes in this capacity.

Thomas E. Hanika, manager of the Indianapolis Automobile Trade Association, admitted this in an exclusive interview with The Recorder recently.

The automobile maintenance business is sadly undermanned, according to Mr. Hanika. Statistics show there is only one skilled mechanic or apprentice available for every 58 motor vehicles now in service.

The Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles figures show 144,169 new cars have been purchased in Indiana from January 1 through Friday of last week.

A recent University of Chicago survey revealed that 46 percent of the Negro families in the Chicago area own cars. An outstanding businessman here said the figure here would be only slightly less.

DESPITE the dire need for mechanics, and despite the fact that Negroes are pouring millions into cars, the dealers refuse to tap an available vast reservoir of talented skill simply because the reservoir happens to be black.

Most of the new car dealers in town are members of the Indianapolis Automobile Trade Association and are in constant contact with Mr. Hanika and his staff.

Hanika told The Recorder that he knows of "several" Negro mechanics employed in used car maintenance, but none on the new car line, servicing the cars before they are delivered to the customers and during the warranty period.

The Association manager admitted that altogether there are proportionately "very few" Negro mechanics in new or used car dealerships.

He said the dealers claim they are afraid to employ Negroes because the white mechanics "might" object and create new problems for management.

"Personally," Hanika stated, "I can't see why Negroes can't go into any of these shops without incident."

"But the dealers refuse to hire them."

Hanika said he had tried several times to place Negro mechanics or apprentices without success. He pointed out the case of a recent Tech high school graduate who had been trained, as many white boys, in the Tech auto shop

Christ Temple Church, 430 West Fall Creek Parkway, the host to thousands of delegates from all parts of the world during the past 45 years of its history, is again this year host to another convention, Aug. 12 through 17.

Expectations are that the convention this year will be one of the largest ever since the founding of the Northside religious institution by Bishop W. T. Haywood in 1910.

The meeting regularly attracts delegates from the various sections of the country who arrive by car, train, plane, but, to be on hand for the annual Christ Temple church convention, and the annual national convention of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World which meets Aug. 18-26.

Cites Record To Show Eisenhower Has Kept His Campaign Promises

WASHINGTON (AP)—The appointment of E. Frederic Morrow to the administrative staff of the executive office of President Eisenhower fulfills the 1952 campaign promises of the Republicans in the field of civil rights.

This was the opinion contained in a report issued this week by Val J. Washington, director of minorities for the Republican National Committee.

"The Republican party has fulfilled each of its specific promises on civil rights made during the 1952 campaign," stated Washington.

"Those were published in a pamphlet entitled 'The Republican party and the Negro' and with the appointment of Morrow to the White House staff, the program of campaign promises has been fulfilled."

Reviewing the accomplishments of the Eisenhower administration Washington included the following points:

1. PEACE—The Korean War ended shortly after President Eisenhower was inaugurated. Not since that time has it been neces-

Say Kuykendall Failed To Pass Physical Tests

Final confirmation of the appointment of Rufus C. Kuykendall, prominent attorney and Republican leader as country director of Liberia hit an unexpected, formidable snag with the announcement in Washington that he had failed to pass the physical examination.

The door of hope for the most important top-rank position ever given an Indiana Negro was almost closed as officials of the International Cooperation Administration reported results of the physical taken by Kuykendall several weeks ago.

RUFUS C. KUYKENDALL

The International Cooperation Administration has recently taken over the functions of the Foreign Office Administration and has direct charge of the operations of the country director representing this country in Liberia.

Coming as a complete surprise, the announcement that Kuykendall had failed to pass the physical examination, a prerequisite to confirmation of appointment, produced a state of extreme political shock in administration circles in Washington and among Kuykendall supporters in this city and state.

SINCE he was first mentioned authoritatively for the $17,000-a-year position in the Negro republic, reports from high administration leaders built up the assurance both to Kuykendall and the public generally that his certification was merely a matter of fitting a few minor details into the bright, encouraging picture.

This notwithstanding the fact that serious opposition to his securing the position was registered by an influential Republican leader with administration heads on grounds of "incompatibility."

It was understood, however, that after a second investigation by the FBI that followed filing of the charges, Kuykendall was given the clean bill of health that followed the first routine investigation customary in all considered appointments to high political office.

THE SITUATION as developed with the dramatic chain of events proves embarrassing to Kuykendall, his wife, legions of friends and the group of Republican leaders who enthusiastically endorsed him to President Eisenhower and urged the appointment as long due recognition of the strategic influence of Negro voters in Hoosierland.

Practically assured of the final confirmation, Kuykendall resigned his position as assistant city attorney of Indianapolis which he has held with distinction for more than three years under the entire administration of Mayor Alex M. Clark.

In addition, he made arrangements to give up his extensive private practice and had been warmly toasted at a running series of banquets and receptions in his honor.

Should the certification of his appointment not be consummated, Kuykendall said he would continue in the private practice of law here.

Man Drowned in Bathtub, Buried

Several hundred friends joined the family attending funeral services Tuesday for Donald Perry Carpenter, 35, who was drowned in his home, Aug. 4.

Services were held at the Peoples' Funeral Home with burial in Crown Hill.

Carpenter, a coroner's report said, was drowned in the bath tub of his home, 615 W. 31st, after he suffered a stroke of some sort, probably due to a heart condition. A lifelong resident of this city, he was a member of Bethel AME Church and had been employed as a moulder at the Link-Belt foundry for a number of years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ruth M. Carpenter; three daughters, Misses Sandra, Gloria, and Donna Ruth Carpenter, and his father, Thomas H. Carpenter.

told the Jury that Trigg and another man, identified as Charles Price Webb and also of Chicago, held the place up about 7:45 a.m. Oct. 10, 1953.

Webb held a gun on Theodore Medias and Willie Givens and Phillip Klenn, employees, as Trigg took William Medias to the basement and, bound him, hand and foot with wire.

Trigg then returned to the main floor, donned work gloves and looked the vault of about $10,000 in cash and $5,000 in jewelry.

The holdup men forced the men to lay face-down on the floor and told them their "goose will be cooked" if they yelled, then left. All the men positively identified Trigg as one of the holdup men and identified Webb from a photograph. Webb is being held by Chicago police in connection with a murder committed during a robbery.

THE FINAL CHAPTER in the Trigg story was written only after a long struggle by local authorities which took the case to the Supreme Court of Tennessee, through Illinois courts and to the Indiana Supreme Court.

Following the holdup, Lt. Davenport and Sgt. Jones started their investigation with only a description of the bandits and the knowledge they were not local men.

A hunch that they were part of a ruthless Chicago gang which had plagued Indianapolis super markets the year before took the crack detective team to the Windy City.

In two days the officers had established the identity of Trigg and Webb. Trigg had gone on a spending spree when he got back to Chicago after the "job" and had left a trail. He bought $134 worth of new clothes, paid $1,000 down on a late-model sedan and paid up his hotel bill, plus paying two weeks in advance.

Trigg had left Chicago but Lt. Davenport and Sgt. Jones traced him to his mother's home at Memphis, Tenn., where he was arrested Nov. 3.

The Tennessee Supreme Court turned him over to Indiana authorities and Trigg was released under $10,000 bond when arraigned here.

HE JUMPED BOND and fled to Chicago several months ago but was arrested a short time later in the Windy City on burglary charges when he and two white Chicago hoodlums were stopped in his car and found to possess guns.

Deputy Prosecutor Grant and Lt. Davenport won extradition proceedings in Chicago's Cook County Criminal Court.

Howard Harding, prominent Indianapolis underworld figure who was known to have been a distributor for an interstate narcotics ring, was found dead Feb. 18 in a weedy field at 2549 Sangster. He had been shot once through the back of the head. His blood-soaked Cadillac was found parked several blocks away.

A .44 caliber pistol found in Trigg's car when he was last arrested in Chicago was established as the weapon with which Harding was killed.

Trigg served four years in the Illinois State Prison for robbery and spent three years in the Tennessee State Prison for grand larceny.

He was arrested here in connection with a Louisville robbery while he was free under bond on the Medias robbery and detectives here believe he was Harding's link with Chicago, his chief source of dope.

rate of speed. The boy dashed across the road and was struck about four feet off the pavement on the east side.

Willie's body was hurled into the air and smashed the right side of the car's windshield then thrown 9 feet before landing in high weeds on the side of the road.

The youngster died instantly. Mrs. Dowdell and her companions said the car screamed 270 feet past the point of impact, then stopped in the middle of the road.

Toliver and the three men got out, looked back at the mangled body of the victim, and fled on foot to the home of Cantrell, not far away.

TOLIVER SAID the accelerator stuck as he came off the hill at about 60 miles per hour. His brakes refused to respond when he pumped them after seeing the boy started across the road, he said. He said he pulled his emergency brake on and estimated the car was traveling "no more than 30 miles an hour" when it struck Dowdell.

"I know one thing," Toliver sobbed, "I wasn't trying to hit any one. I tried to miss him,

In the opening session, Hairston called for the establishment of an Institute of Store Operation in cooperation with the College of Pharmacy, Howard University.

The primary object of such an institute would be to conduct a continuous and permanent study of the factors related to the success and failure of drug stores operated by NPA members as well as others, Hairston said.

He also called for establishment of machinery through which members of the association might purchase items jointly in large quantities instead of individually in small quantities.

The pharmacists held four general sessions, one Tuesday, two Wednesday and one Thursday.

The general sessions featured talks by pharmacists and persons in related fields.

The convention will be held in St. Louis next year.

THE NEWLY-ELECTED PRESIDENT is widely recognized as one of the most outstanding pharmacists of Indianapolis, Indiana and the Mid-West.

After finishing courses in a pharmaceutical college, he was appointed to the staff of the drug department at Methodist hospital where he advanced to a top position as a prescription specialist.

So skilled and expert was he that many physicians in the city and eventually throughout the country and many parts of the world, demanded his personal attention in the filling of their prescriptions.

He left the hospital about six years ago to open his own drug store at 27th and Northwestern and because of a phenomenal and steady growth of business he moved last year into his present spacious quarters at 27th and Northwestern as a Walgreen agency.

The present store is universally described as one of the most modern, tastefully appointed, well-stocked departmental drug store to be found anywhere.

His success in operating and merchandising is eagerly recognized by the people of the entire city and stamps Mr. Clark as one of the leading businessmen of the city and an invaluable asset.

too."

John G. Linehan, Sheriff's investigator, said the tracks at the scene indicated the car went off the road 40 yards before it struck the boy. He said the car made tracks four feet off the side of the road at the point of impact.

PROSECUTOR TINDER said he would ask maximum prison terms for both drivers.

Dowdell was buried Saturday afternoon in New Crown Cemetery following services in the Craig Funeral Home.

Born in Opelika, Ala., he lived here four years and was a fourth grade pupil at the Clermont grade school.

Besides the mother, he is survived by four brothers, Robert L. Allester, David L., and David Ray Dowdell, and two sisters, Mrs. Arreatha Bell and Carrie Ethel Dowdell.

Church Elects New Officers

The control of the 16th Street Baptist Church, its business and spiritual affairs has been returned to the members and duly elected officers.

In the recent Court action, it was recognized that Rev. Albert Batts has been dismissed as pastor and his salary paid in full.

Officers, trustees and a pulpit committee were chosen at a church meeting Aug. 3.

Deacons selected were: Chester Gardner, chairman; Hilrod Reed, William Payne, Leslie Wilson, Calvin Harris, Leslie Caldwell, Sam Williams, John O'Neal and Alex Taylor.

Trustees are: Cleveland Oliver, chairman; Russell Butler, James Townsend, Joe Henderson, John L. Henry, Knox Harris and Clinton Paine, Jr.

Mrs. Grace Mabry was elected church clerk and Mrs. Martha Gardner, the financial secretary.

Members of the pulpit committee selected were Messrs. Heed, Caldwell and Gardner, Sr.

The law suits resulting from the recent fight to oust the pastor were all dropped by the contending parties. Henry J. Richardson and Lola Allen represented many of the members and Frank R. Beckwith and E. C. Boswell represented the former pastor and those supporting him.

Ludlow's Market To Change Site

Ludlow's Market, located at 225 N. Illinois for the past four years, is being forced to move to new quarters at 54 W. New York next week.

Leon Ludlow, operator of the popular market and an able business man with 20 years' experience in the business, says the new store will open Aug. 17 with all the facilities and fine appointments of the truly modern food market.

The change is made necessary, he declared, because of the great increase in business, a gratifying result of his sound and intelligent merchandising policy under which he operates.

The new store has much larger floor space which permits a much better and more convenient display of the full variety of foods offered to thrifty housewives.

Mr. Ludlow, before opening his present market, was a partner in the operation of the former Uhl's Market, a popular food retail outlet at 29 S. Illinois.

All equipment in the 54 West New York store will be up-to-the minute in style and design, fashioned to offer effective and clear display and at the same time, conserve foods and protect their freshness and quality.

MEANWHILE, the usual money-saving bargains always found at Ludlow's will be offered at the present store this weekend with the traditional courteous service that has made this market notable.

The place will be closed Monday and Tuesday next week when arrangements will be completed for transfer to the location on New York street. Announcement of a formal opening will appear on Page 8 of The Recorder next week.

Car Dealers

He was unable to place the youth in the new car line but after much effort found a place in used cars.

"I haven't had any trouble placing white boys," Hanika stated. "The dealers are glad to get them."

The high school shop-trained mechanics work several years as apprentices and if they show outstanding ability are sent to special automotive schools like the General Motors Institute of Technology.

MR. HANIK was high in his praise for the auto shop at At-tucks high school, which is directed by George Roddy.

"They turn out some darned good mechanics up there," he stated.

The automotive maintenance business offers an attractive future and excellent pay.

Various classes of mechanics make a minimum of around two dollars per hour and advance to a maximum of about three dollar an hour.

Specialists in the various automotive fields draw the biggest pay checks. There is a desperate need for specialists in automatic transmissions, power steering and power brakes and the electronic accessories used in today's automobile.

Hanika feels that the color line in the employment of mechanics will gradually fade.

He suggested that Negro mechanics first make application for jobs in used cars and gain the good will of fellow white mechanics "and soon they'll find themselves throughout the industry here."

Mrs. Lucy Watkins

basis. Segregation among D. C. federal employees has been eliminated. The District of Columbia public housing program is now operating on an integrated basis.

4. FEDERAL DEPARTMENTS—The President created the Committee on Employment Policy, which looks into and straightens out problems on racial discrimination in the various executive departments. When President Eisenhower took office nearly half the Negro units were still intact in the Army. Today, there is none. Negroes in the Navy now serve on an integrated basis. All segregated schools at military establishments have been integrated. Racial segregation has been eliminated from all veterans hospitals in the South.

5. FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS—Twenty-six Negroes are listed as serving in administrative positions in practically every department of the government, many on a policy-making level, in capacities never before held by Negroes.

6. POLICY-MAKING JOBS—Of the more than 250 appointments by the Republican Administration, such men and women as J. Ernest Wilkins, E. Frederic Morrow, Joseph Ray, Scovel Richardson, Joseph Douglass, Samuel Pierce, Roberta Church, and others are on a policy making level.

7. CIVIL RIGHTS—The Justice Department has been relentless in its attacks on the offenders of Civil Rights for others. One of the most effective measures has been a program of training for all United States attorneys appointed by President Eisenhower.

8. CONGRESS—The 83rd Congress was headed by Republican leaders. The committees were chaired by northern and western Republicans.

9. ANTI-BIAS LAWS—All instances of encroachment on constitutional rights of Negro citizens have been investigated by the Justice department and action taken to correct these abuses.

Father, Son Appear In Court On Charges Of Being Drunk

Father and son appeared in important roles in the proceedings before Judge George Ober in Speedway Magistrate Court Tuesday.

Henry Cantrell, Sr., 50, R. R. 1, Bridgeport, was haled into court on charges of drunken driving and driving without a license and being drunk June 10.

On the same docket was Cantrell's son, Henry, 19, charged with being a drunken passenger in the hit-and run car that killed Willie Louis Dowdell, 9, Monday afternoon.

The drunken driving charge against the father was dismissed for lack of evidence but he was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail on the other charges.

Young Cantrell was held on a $1,000 bond for further hearing.

For good printing "in a hurry," phone The Indianapolis Recorder Printing Co., ME. 4-1545. You will be pleased and proud of the work.

10. LABOR—Slowly but surely Negroes are being employed in all occupations. This has been done through the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

11. TAXES—Taxes were reduced by the Republican Congress nearly seven and one-half billion dollars.

12. BASIC FREEDOMS—The administration has reversed the 20-year trend toward centralization of power in Washington. Free enterprise is again operating full steam ahead, and we have now the greatest prosperity in the history of our country.

13. FALSE HOPES—Eisenhower made no wild promises on civil rights. His approach has been action, not words. Every move has been directed toward the complete elimination of every vestige of segregation and discrimination in American life with first-class citizenship for all as a goal.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

All has been quiet on all front socially during the past week, so the column will be a "hello-goodbye" affair. Things were a little enlivened around my own house this week by a surprise visit from my little sister, Mrs. Ernest Hudson, of Petersburg, Va. Most of you will remember Mary Ellen from the time she wrote this column during my brief stay at the Monastery of St. Mary and St. John, Cambridge, Mass.

At the office we welcomed Miss Willa Thomas, who returned home last Saturday after attending the Baptist World Alliance in London, England. While in London she was house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper.

Before returning home she stopped over in New York City and visited her sisters, the Misses Doris and Naomi Thomas, then on to Cleveland to attend the International Sunday School Convention.

In Cleveland she was house guest of Mrs. Lucille Bolling and was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. William Easterly. She also spent some time at Akron with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henry, and friends. She was honored at breakfast by Mesdames Naomi B. Harmon and Vilo Cransberry and with dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gary and Mrs. P. F. Penson.

Miss Thomas will be speaking in various local churches to report on the Baptist World Alliance, and any church or missionary group wishing her to speak may write to her at 626 West 27th street.

While attending both church meetings representing The Recorder, she was among the members of the press receiving special attention.

Another "surprise" visit this week is that of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, here from Detroit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Yowell. Mrs. Smith is the former Miss Barbara Yowell, a very popular member of the younger set here.

Met a new "Smith" this week—William C. Smith, starting next week and the following in "Showboat" out at Butler and house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Fleming while here.

Mr. Smith, here after successful appearances in Atlanta and Louisville, holds the record for "showboat" with over 2,000 performances. He now lives in Nyack, N. Y., where he is a voice instructor.

John Montgomery, formerly of this city but now of New York, spent several days recently as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baxter.

A few postal cards came in this week. Mr. and Mrs. Eschol McCain write from San Francisco, where she was attending the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority boulev while touring the West. They say I MUST see that part of the country. Don't worry, I will.

The Fitzhugh Lyoneses waxed rather rhapsodically in writing from New Castle, Pa. Draw your conclusions. "On lesser Olympus the sweet breezes blow, and in the gentle arms of Morpheus we do repose!"

My priest, Rev. Henry J. Hill, was right in thinking pictures of the Riverside Church and Grant's Tomb in New York City would appeal to me. By now he and his family are probably basking in the sun on the Virgin Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson and family are vacationing in New York City, where she is visiting sessions of the national boulev of Tau Gamma Delta sorority. George is business manager of The Recorder.

A large group from here will be leaving over the weekend for Chicago for the convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians. I plan to look in on the tail end of the convention next week.

It's interesting to note that the top office in each organization is held by a local person—Mrs. Bertha Smith is supreme basileus of the sorority, while Dr. Roscoe Polin is president of the NANM.

City To Be Well Represented At National Musicians Meeting

Indianapolis will be well-represented at the 36th annual convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians in Chicago, August 14-20, in addition to sharing honors in the leading role through boasting of Dr. Roscoe D. Polin, local school teacher and musician, who is national president.

The Chicago Music Association and the R. Nathaniel Dett Music club will be hosts to the convention, headquarters of which will be St. James Methodist Church, 46th street and Ellis avenue. Theodore Charles Stone and Dr. Omega King are co-chairmen.

Local talent appearing on the programs will include David Hardiman, trumpet student at the Jordan College of Music, representing the Tempi club on the youth program Tuesday night, and representing the Indianapolis Music promoters on the junior program Wednesday afternoon. William Hogue, voice student of Mrs. Teresa S. Sanders, and Ida Bates and Alma Slets, piano students of Dr. Polin.

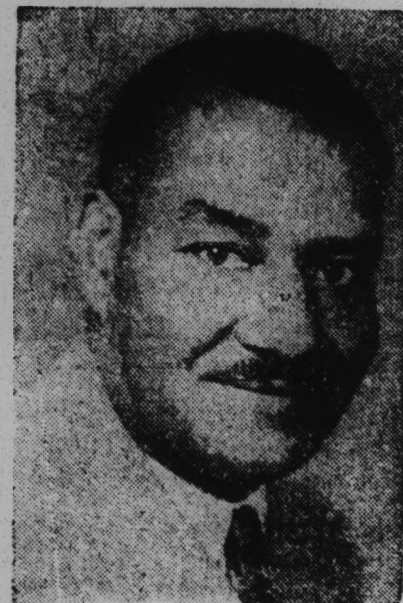

Miss Mildred James, voice student of Mrs. Sanders, and Mrs. Helen Laster, dramatic soprano, will represent the Sanders Music Study club and the Music Promoters respectively at the Wednesday Branch Night program.

Alynt Dumas Lee, soprano formerly of Indianapolis and now of Chicago, and Joseph Lockett, Chicago pianist, will grace the stage for the Artist Recital on Friday night.

In addition to Dr. Polin, officers from here attending will be Mrs. Teresa S. Sanders, Central regional director and executive secretary of the Indiana State Association of Negro Musicians; David Hardiman, national youth parliamentarian and state second vice-president, and Mrs. Clara K. Hill, past national recording secretary.

Others attending from here are Mrs. Helen Laster, president and delegate of the Indianapolis Music Promoters and state recording secretary; Mrs. Eva Turner, state treasurer; Ruth Kirk, delegate for the Music Promoters, and Sadie Hardiman, state youth director and sponsor of the Tempi club.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

D. W. D. Hector, FAC first vice-president, presided at Monday night's regular meeting, which had a rather nice attendance, considering the many persons who are away on vacations.

Everyone present is talking about Dennis Mosley, who so beautifully rendered two solos as part of the program. Mr. Mosley is a former employee of the Park Board, working with me during the time I was director at Douglass Center. Singing has been taking up his time since then.

His wife, Marie, accompanied him at the piano.

Rev. G. Caldwell spoke briefly to conclude the program.

Several committee chairmen reported on coming projects. Mrs. Emma McKnight offered a plea for contributions for the health and welfare committee's annual picnic for residents at the Farm Colony.

Ice cream and cake are served, and the committee needs cash donations. As the group will be leaving at 1 Saturday, it is urgent that those wishing to help call Mrs. McKnight at ME 4-2241, or the office WA. 6-4495, or better still, bring or send contributions to the FAC Home by Friday night.

The committee also asks that interested persons meet at the club home Saturday at 12:30 to go to the picnic in a group. You cannot realize the good you are doing until you see the pathetic joy of the residents.

The yearbook committee has set August 22 as deadline for additional pictures to be used in the book. So hurry, don't be left out!

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Porter were duly honored on their 25th wedding anniversary in the FAC Auditorium last Sunday afternoon. Miss Mildred James, niece of the FAC president, rendered a beautiful solo, and Miss Betty Hutchinson furnished piano music throughout.

Edward L. Patterson says he spent a glorious two weeks' vacation in the East, spending four days in Buffalo as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Shelby, in New York City as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black and also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bradley on Long Island.

Motoring to Atlantic City, he spent a day on the boardwalk and splashing about in the Atlantic Ocean. In Philadelphia he visited Mr. and Mrs. Gene Winston. Many social courtesies were extended him by friends.

Mrs. Mary Hughes, president of the Marizandea club, is vacationing in California, while Mrs. Willora Morris, secretary of the FAC board of directors, is also vacationing in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel D. Bowen, Cleveland, visited our presi-

ONE FINE DAY: It was one fine day for approximately 3000 people of all ages who enjoyed The Recorder's annual picnic at Boy Scouts' Camp Belzer. The hundreds of kiddies (upper left) crowding around the free rides awaiting their turns are but a handful. Jitter-bugging occupied the time for many of the boys and girls, as Carl Smith and Mary Peppers (upper right) demonstrate. Another attraction was the basketball clinic. Showing some of the fine points as Bill Brown goes up for a shot (lower left) are John Gipson, Sam Milton and James Enochs, behind Brown, all Attacks Tigers stars. Enjoying the swimming pool are Glenda Hampton, 15, 706 Blake street; Eddis Johnson, 15, 883 West 29th street; Verlane Bratton, 15, 1210 West 30th street, and Mary Lee Thomas, 14, 936 West North street.

side of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen motored to Cordia, Ky., last week for the funeral of his grandfather, William R. Allen, who was 103 years old and left 13 children, 47 grandchildren, 57 great-grandchildren, 16 great-great-grandchildren and one great-great-great-grandchild!

The Gay Caballeros report a very large number of guests attended their annual picnic at Columbia Park and had a really good time. The business manager, Lamarr Peterson, was commended for a job well done. The men are now completing plans for their annual barn dance.

To remind you again: Your chartered busses and bus tickets to any place in this country may be secured at the FAC Office. You may save time by not going to town for your tickets.

Mrs. Searcy Greenwell attended the 40th national convention of the Knights of St. Peter Claver and its women's auxiliary commemorating the silver anniversary of the founding of the Roman Catholic society in Chicago.

Mrs. Eva Fatge was called to Western, Ky., last week to the bed-

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

"Honor where honor should be given" is the slogan for members of Olivet Baptist Church, who will honor Miss Evelyn Squires of Jacksonville, Fla., with a special program next Wednesday night at 8. Miss Squires, a very industrious young musician, is owner of the Evelyn Squires Studio at Jacksonville.

Several hundred contacts have been made for the Wednesday night affair, at which Ernest Adams will extend the welcome, while Dr. Benjamin Osborn will make the response. A reception open to the general public will follow the well-planned program.

My old pal Mrs. Coda Sweeney has done a swell job as president of the Ruth Missionary Society of Good Samaritan Baptist Church. The society has secured Master Bobby Thompson, who will be assisted by the Metropolitan Jubilee Singers in a program Sunday afternoon, August 21, at 3. Mrs. Sweeney will be assisted by her program chairman, Mrs. Lella Hargrove. All missionary groups are especially invited.

Dr. J. A. G. Jordan is pastor.

Speaking of pals, I am reminded of Mrs. Josephine Laddell, program chairman for the church convention of Greater Gethsemane Baptist Church, with Mrs. Mae Mayberry as president.

Rev. F. K. Dillard, formerly of the Eastside but now living at 3251 North Capitol avenue, is invited for the convention to be held next Wednesday and theme of which will be "Stewards for God."

Have you ever tried to pull a surprise party on someone? Well, I tried it on my daughter, Ann, on her eighteenth birthday August 3 at the old residence, her birthplace, since we were moving. I was the surprised one, since someone had "snatched" and told her. However, she played dumb to fool me.

Mrs. Edna Lewis and Alice Walton assisted Mr. Connell and me in serving twenty or more young men and women. Betty Jo Crossin, Richard Beeler and Toby Rayford played their parts well in the surprise, helping to plan it. Out of two large cakes, I did not get a small Ann was very appreciative of the many useful gifts.

Many are taking advantage of August, the month for vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, 1918 Cornell avenue, report a pleasant trip to Thornton, Va., while Mr. and Mrs. John D. Baker and family of Baker's Market are touring various cities in the South.

Another set of Bakers, the Clyde Bakers, 2339 Pleasant street, report a grand time visiting relatives at Madison.

It was good to see an old friend, Mrs. Mattie Fanning, 343 West 29th street, in the morning services last Sunday. Mrs. Fanning, a past Sunday school superintendent at New Bethel Baptist Church of many years' experience, has been very ill at the hospital.

And speaking of New Bethel, I must say Dr. F. Benjamin Davis left real food for thought last Sunday, talking on "Remember Lot's Wife." He said, "We who continue to keep our minds on the past and divided cannot go far. God cannot use people of divided mind. Forget the past and press forward."

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord" was a thought left by Rev. B. J. Radish of St. Rita's Roman Catholic Church in the funeral services of Mrs. Ada Douglas. He noted that Mrs. Douglas, in rearing so many fine children and doing so many nice things for the community, received many blessings.

Several firemen attended in uniform in recognition of a son, Thomas S. Douglas, a fireman. The pallbearers were members of the Fire Department. Streets were blocked with cars from Martindale avenue double to 17th street on Arsenal avenue. Don't tell anyone we can't make a 9 a.m. funeral. I, who am always late, made this one on time.

Beautiful respects were likewise paid Mrs. Lulu Hardiman, whose funeral was held at New Bethel Baptist Church, with Rev. F. Benjamin Davis preaching. Cars met in large numbers at the home, and several cars pulled out with no extra passengers.

Mrs. Hardiman, a nurse at the church, served in many other capacities there. In spite of her age, she made all services until she took to the bed. Many old people do have large funerals, we see. Your works will follow you.

Shame on us! A lovely dinner was given for Community Chest workers last night to introduce them, and sad but true I seemingly was the only one of our group receiving an invitation. I called several persons to go, to hear them say, "I am sorry."

Just one, Mrs. John D. Baker, accepted. We enjoyed the treat served by the Indiana National Bank during the "get acquainted" period from 11:45 to 12:15, when an elaborate luncheon was served.

A beautiful parable was made by the speaker, who in giving Fuller Product Company a big send-off, said "A sure road to success is made of honesty, courage, enthusiasm and human relationships."

Our next dinner will be August 18 at L. S. Ayres. Please contact the Ole Scribe. We need workers in this area. Few of us realize how little our group gives, and yet we receive so much from the Chest.

If you can help, please call ME, 8-0095. Let them know that, although we were slow showing up as a group we are out to put the program over in a big way.

Don't forget my new address, 1100 East Michigan, at Dorman—504 Dorman street, right on the corner. Please note, I have my sleeping quarters here also, so am seldom at the old address, which is being used for tourist accommodations.

Miss Virginia Kimball Receives Medical Social Work Degree

Miss Virginia Kimball, daughter of Mrs. Lucy B. Kimball, 938 North Sheffield avenue, received the master's degree in medical social work from Indiana University on June 13.

A life-long resident of Indianapolis, Miss Kimball is a product of School No. 63, Crispus Attucks high school and Central State College, Wilberforce, O. She is also a member of Caldwell Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, where she has served as assistant church clerk, Sunday school teacher and a leader in the young people's groups.

Ethel Waters To Be in City At Avondale

ETHEL WATERS

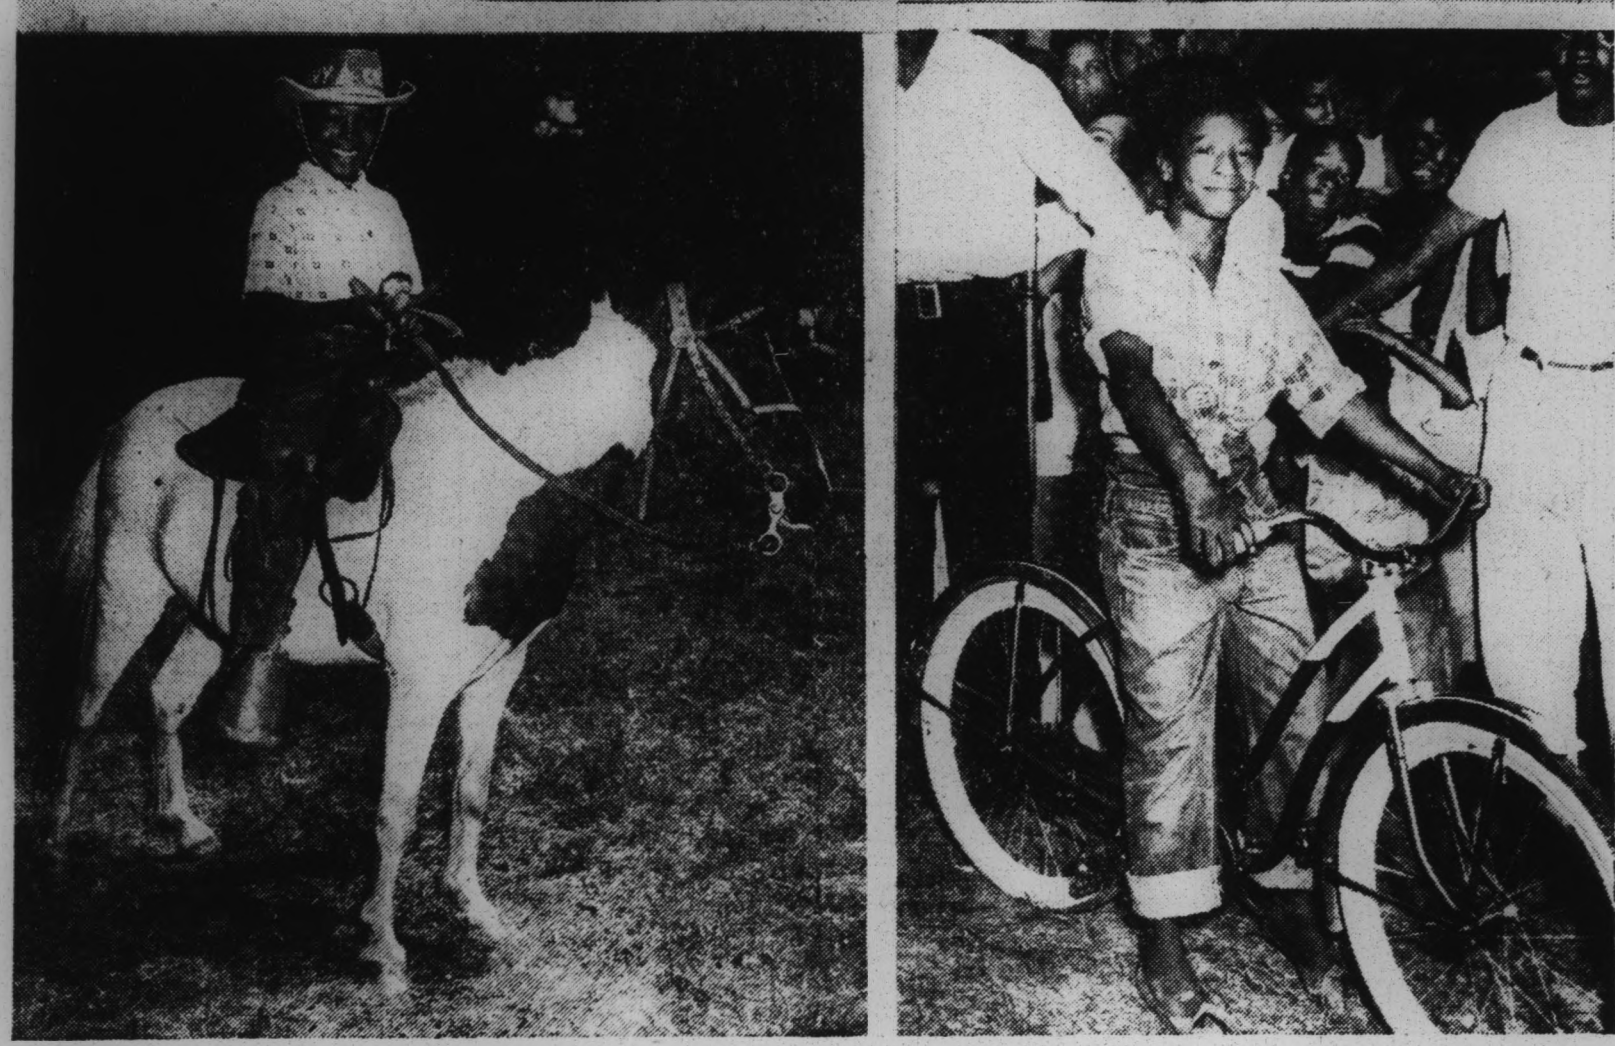

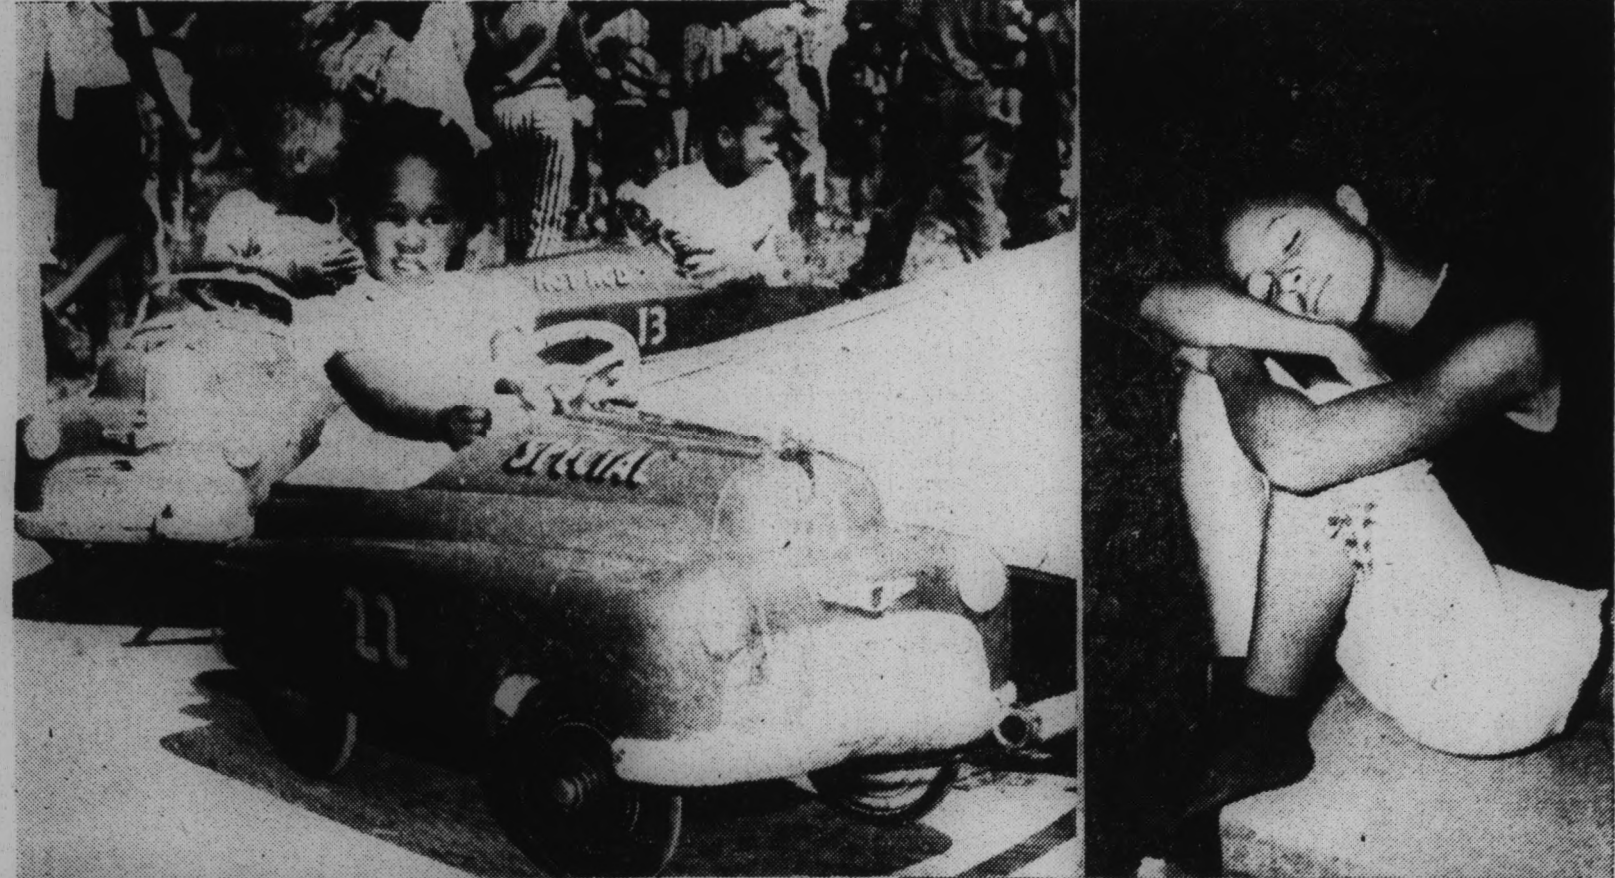

The great Ethel Waters in "Member of the Wedding," one of the theater's foremost plays, is the attraction at the Avondale Playhouse for six nights, August 16-21.

The play, featuring Miss Waters, is the first appearance on Broadway since it first appeared on Broadway several years ago, with the motion picture being equally successful.

Sharing the spotlight with Miss Waters will be Janet deGore as the bombastic teenage girl and Ricky Hamilton as the young boy. Both youngsters are touring the nation with Miss Waters in the play, following numerous successes on Broadway and on television.

"Member of the Wedding" is expected to be the highlight of the current Avondale Playhouse season. The tent theater, featuring plays-in-the-round, is located at 5801 Millersville road.

Mrs. Ora Blake left last Friday by plane for a five-week vacation trip in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Pasadena, San Diego, Las Vegas, Nevada and Old Mexico.

RECORDER PICNIC: "A good time was had by all" is a phrase carefully avoided by the journalist, but one perfectly applicable to The Recorder Newsies' picnic, held Monday at the Boy Scouts' Camp Belzer, as the pictures show. Four-year-old Patricia Armour (upper left), 1414 Columbia avenue, enjoys one of the free rides. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Armour. Delighted "in the saddle" is six-year-old John Dubinion (lower left), son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dubinion, 3028 North Arsenal Avenue. The free pony rides proved one of the most popular attractions at the picnic. Certainly one of the happiest picnickers was Carol Thornton (lower right), 12, a Recorder carrier who won the bike in the jitterbug contest. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jones, 1324 Yendes street. "At the end of a perfect day," Mildred Jacks (upper right), is caught napping. Fourteen years old, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Jacks, 2716 Schofield avenue.

WOODY'S FIX-IT CLINIC

Squeaking floor boards can be silenced by nailing them to the sub-flooring. Drive two-inch finishing nails in at an angle, close to the edges of the boards. Use a nail set to sink heads of the nails below board surface. Fill holes with Plastic Wood, a little over-full. When Plastic Wood has hardened, sand it down with medium-fine sandpaper. Touch up with paint or shellac to match boards.

You can work with less mess when using paint, stain or varnish from a small can, if you put the can in an old cup. The cup will catch any drippings that run down the sides of the can, and the cup handle makes it easy to hold or move the paint without smearing your fingers.

Some People Say --In Our Town

By W. ALEXANDER CHAMBERS

R. S. Garfield Todd, prime minister of South Rhodesia, was a visitor in this city recently. Prime Minister Todd, in the United States of America for conferences with the U. S. State Department, visited the headquarters of the United Christian Missionary Society in Indianapolis.

One of the richest areas of Africa in many resources, developed or undeveloped, South Rhodesia has a population of less than 200,000 Europeans (white) and a native population variously reported at nearly 2,000,000.

Discussing the status of the native population, Prime Minister Todd observed that next door to the Union of South Africa, Rhodesia has begun integrating the natives into community life. He noted that some of the natives upon meeting educational and property holding qualifications (set by law) were permitted to vote.

Fairly reliable world travelers tell a different story of the views or outlook of the leaders (rulers) in the Union of South Africa, the richest country in the world of comparable area in resources. In keeping with other observations credited to Prime Minister Todd one might vision a time when the natives of South Rhodesia will share equitably and intelligently in all salutary promises and tasks of the European way of life imposed upon their land.

U. S. Senator Homer E. Capehart, creator of the cornfield political epic, is credited with setting the scenes directly or indirectly for the appointment of Rufus Kuykendall to a federal post in Liberia and the appointment of Robert L. Brockenburr as an alternate delegate to the United Nations Assembly.

Mr. Kuykendall and Mr. Brockenburr are lawyers and both residents of this city. In the cross-play of politics some persons ventured that both appointments would not be made. Moreover, State Senator Brockenburr never subscribed fully to Gov. George N. Craig's political program. This was considered a point again him. Again, Mr. Kuykendall as assistant city corporation counsel of the city was in a camp eventually of theoretical opposition to Gov. Craig. However, one might conclude, all is well that ends well—so look forward to the possible drafting of Sen-Capehart.

Y. R. Smith is an employee of the Allison Division of General Motors Corp. in this city. He has been employed by the local division of GMC about 15 years. Seemingly a rugged individualist, he reportedly has operated a nudist camp since 1948 hardly a disturbing matter in days of "G-string" bathing suits.

In a striking adventure Mr. Smith is suing to prevent GMC and UAW-CIO from enforcing the union shop clause of the last contract negotiated by the union with General Motors Corp. According to reports he charges his constitutional rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are threatened by the union shop clause of the contract.

We ponder over the comment of one grizzled old-timer in the ranks of organized labor. In his opinion Mr. Smith has a right to his views, but he ventured Mr. Smith was born too late. He thinks the gentleman might relish the days of the "Hay Market Riot" or similar carryings-on at Cripple Creek and up where the Ohio River starts in Pennsylvania, the fellow might have done better in the times when politicians promised us the blessing of "a dollar a day, and a full dinner pail."

Joseph E. Bright, president of the city council, recently invited the two mayoral nominees to participate in hearing on the proposed $17,769,000 civil city budget for 1956. If the budget is adopted it will mean a 20-cent increase over the present tax levy of $1.90 for each $100 of assessed valuation of property.

James O. Birr, GOP nominee, observed that sufficient revenues must be on hand if the next administration is to carry on the "progressive program instituted by Mayor Alex M. Clark."

Phillip L. Bayt, Democratic nominee, thinks a balance should be carried over to 1956, seemingly from revenues or funds now accruing to the municipality. Mr. Bayt, former mayor and city controller, declared that the 1951 expenditures called for only $17,000,000 to finance the entire municipal administration, including health and hospitals and the sanitation department. He noted the same services for 1956 or proposed expenditures called for more than $25,000,000. Budget chairman, councilman Charles P. Ehlers promised to find some loose spaces (?) in the budget.

Homer Heck, a visitor in the city, recently charged in a report to a local daily newspaper that two boys about 12 years old, were operating a city police radar when he was arrested on a speeding charge. Mr. Heck, from an upstate town, said he retraced his route after getting a ticket and saw the two boys in the radar car. "There wasn't a policeman in the car," he is reported as stating.

Patrolman William Rohr reported he was operating the radar unit inside the car while the two boys watched through the door. Capt. Audrey Jacobs of the Traffic Division in reply to Mr. Heck's charges said, "That sort of thing just can't happen."

Reports on a shortage of personnel in the police department are met widely with indifference, but if juvenile civilians are being pressed into service the city council should hurry to adopt the $25 million budget.

Gov. George N. Craig's administration must take credit for expanding the state payrolls from 14,301 employees under Gov. Henry Schricker to 16,881 employees as of the latest report. During the state fiscal year ending June 30 employees of the state were paid more than $48,895,000. During the last full year of Gov. Schricker's administration 1951-52 the state payroll was $30,561,142.52.

According to reports, figures from the budget department and the state auditor's staff indicate the state payroll has increased about $11 million since mid-1952. However, the General Assembly has granted state employees a cost-of-living pay boost, and more personnel and an increase in the personnel of state institutions was one of Gov. Craig's campaign pledges.

82-Year-Old Church To Re-Do Three Days In "Old Style"

VINCENNES—Something unique in the way of church celebrations is being noticed at Second Baptist Church here this weekend as the 82-year-old congregation holds a three-day replica, Aug. 12-14, of its early sacred services.

Rev. Robert A. Hill, pastor, said early this week that plans were set for the services during the first part of the year and that members had been preparing for the big event since the plans were first announced.

Highlighting the services was to be the Friday night appearance of the chorus of Cleaves Memorial CME Church, Evansville, in a program of Negro spirituals.

Scheduled for Saturday was an all-day open-pit barbecue, to start at 8 a. m. and open to the public. At 3 Saturday night Rev. Wardell Harvey of Boonville, state missionary of the Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist State Association, is set to preach while bare-foot, representing the early church.

ASSISTING HIM will be Rev. Alfred Robbs, Terre Haute, state Sunday School and BTU Congress president.

A resident here 18 years, Mrs. White was a member of the New Asia Baptist Church of Hopkinsville.

Closing the big event Sunday afternoon will be Rev. G. E. Johnson, moderator of the Mt. Olive State Convention and pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Evansville.

Rev. Hill also announced that the celebration would close a century drive "Shower of Pennies from Heaven," which started Jan. 1 with a goal of 100,000 pennies.

PARTICIPANTS in the program have been requested to wear overalls or work pants, blue or plaid workshirts, and not ties, just a bandana handkerchief around the neck.

Women were asked to wear plain cotton or print dresses, of old-fashioned design if possible, and bonnets or bandana.

Slogan for the event is "There will be no finely dressed people, just plain folks everywhere," and the minister said members are "going all out, trying to dress as old-fashioned as they possibly can."

Indicating that the celebration will be a success, Rev. Hill said people from Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio and many towns of Indiana and Illinois have informed him they will be on hand.

Life Is Cheap

It has been estimated that the matter composing the average human body is worth roughly $1.50. And, it appears to us, the Indianapolis Police Department places just about that much value on life itself—where Negroes are concerned. Time after time there are killings of Negroes by Negroes which go absolutely unpunished. Just last week The Recorder carried a front-page story on the releasing of four persons held for murder and a fifth charged with manslaughter. Similar stories are carried following almost every session of the Marion County Grand Jury.

It is not in a spirit of bloodthirsty revenge that we express concern over the apparent low value placed on Negro life. We would be the last to deny that circumstances sometimes lead to justifiable homicide. But when a killing shocks by its brutality and seeming lack of real reason, we are forced to wonder why the killer is released.

And the killer is released in more cases than seem to us compatible with any idea of justice. These releases continue at an alarming rate.

A major part of the responsibility, we feel, belongs to the Police Department, where the initial investigation would indicate aspects of any killing which would help determine the degree of criminality involved. Thus, Inspector Noel Jones and Chief of Police John Ambuhl would seem in a large measure responsible for the current cheap value placed on the lives of the city's citizens of color.

For one thing they could see to it that Negro homicide teams be assigned to make real investigations of all killings involving Negroes. This is not recommending more jim crow, but a simple recognition of the fact that a white investigator in many instances will not worry too much about "one more colored man dead." The past record of the Indianapolis Police Department does not hint that there are too many white officers much concerned about "civil rights" and "fair play."

Past records also indicate there are capable Negro officers who could make an effective homicide team. Carefully trained and with a full sense of responsibility, they could do much to bring the truth to light in the frequent killings where facts are deliberately suppressed.

The Recorder has repeatedly urged editorially the appointments of Negroes to homicide teams. We firmly believe they could do the job, and well.

At least such appointments would take away from the minds of the doubtful the thought that it is the Police Department's sheer lack of interest which makes Negro life so cheap in Indianapolis.

Georgia's Last Try—Real or Imaginary?

So the State of Georgia is demanding that her public school teachers not be members of the NAACP and that they be openly against integration? So state officials are on one hand attempting to take away a constitutional right, while on the other demanding that the leaders of the state's children pledge to defy a Supreme Court decision?

This is so ludicrous that, try as we might, we cannot get riled up over it. In fact, we wonder if some really clever fair-minded soul has not steered the whole thing. Certainly nothing could be more naive than for a state to think it could pull such a trick unchallenged.

And, in face of the fact that it was the NAACP itself which was largely responsible for the Supreme Court decisions of May 17, 1954 and May 31, 1955, it seems wishful thinking, to put it mildly, to dream that the powerful organization would calmly accept such an absurdity.

It seems to us that no sane man or board of education would ignore Thurgood Marshall, whose sheer genius has already contributed so much to the cause of integration. And Atty. Marshall has very recently, in addressing the American Teachers Association, declared that the NAACP is "prepared to protect the Negro teacher in the desegregation program in Southern schools."

Could the Georgians be so simple as to believe the NAACP attorney meant merely that the organization would provide bodily protection for the individual teachers? Can they really misunderstand? Are they actually so blind they think that, satisfied by primary success, the NAACP would now give up?

Inclined as most Northerners are to regard Southerners as stupid racists only, we sometimes accept at face value the attitudes and poses which receive the widest publicity. We fall too easily for the line that Southerners will do anything to perpetuate segregation.

It may be that they are not all that dumb. It may be that some right-thinking individuals outwardly join the ranks of the bigots in order to destroy from within. It may even be that some brains realize that, by being flagrantly wrong, they force correction from outside.

If a Machiavellian brain is thus behind Georgia's latest move, we laud it. Nothing could so defeat the state's purpose as this sheer nonsense!

Among Atom Advisors

The federal Department of State has announced publicly that Dr. J. Ernest Wilkins Jr., is among the 185 technical advisors accompanying the U. S. delegation at the International Conference on Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy at Geneva, Switzerland, August 8-20.

Son of Assistant Secretary of Labor Wilkins of Chicago, Dr. Wilkins worked with the late Dr. Albert Einstein at the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton University and is presently affiliated with Nuclear Development Associates, Inc.

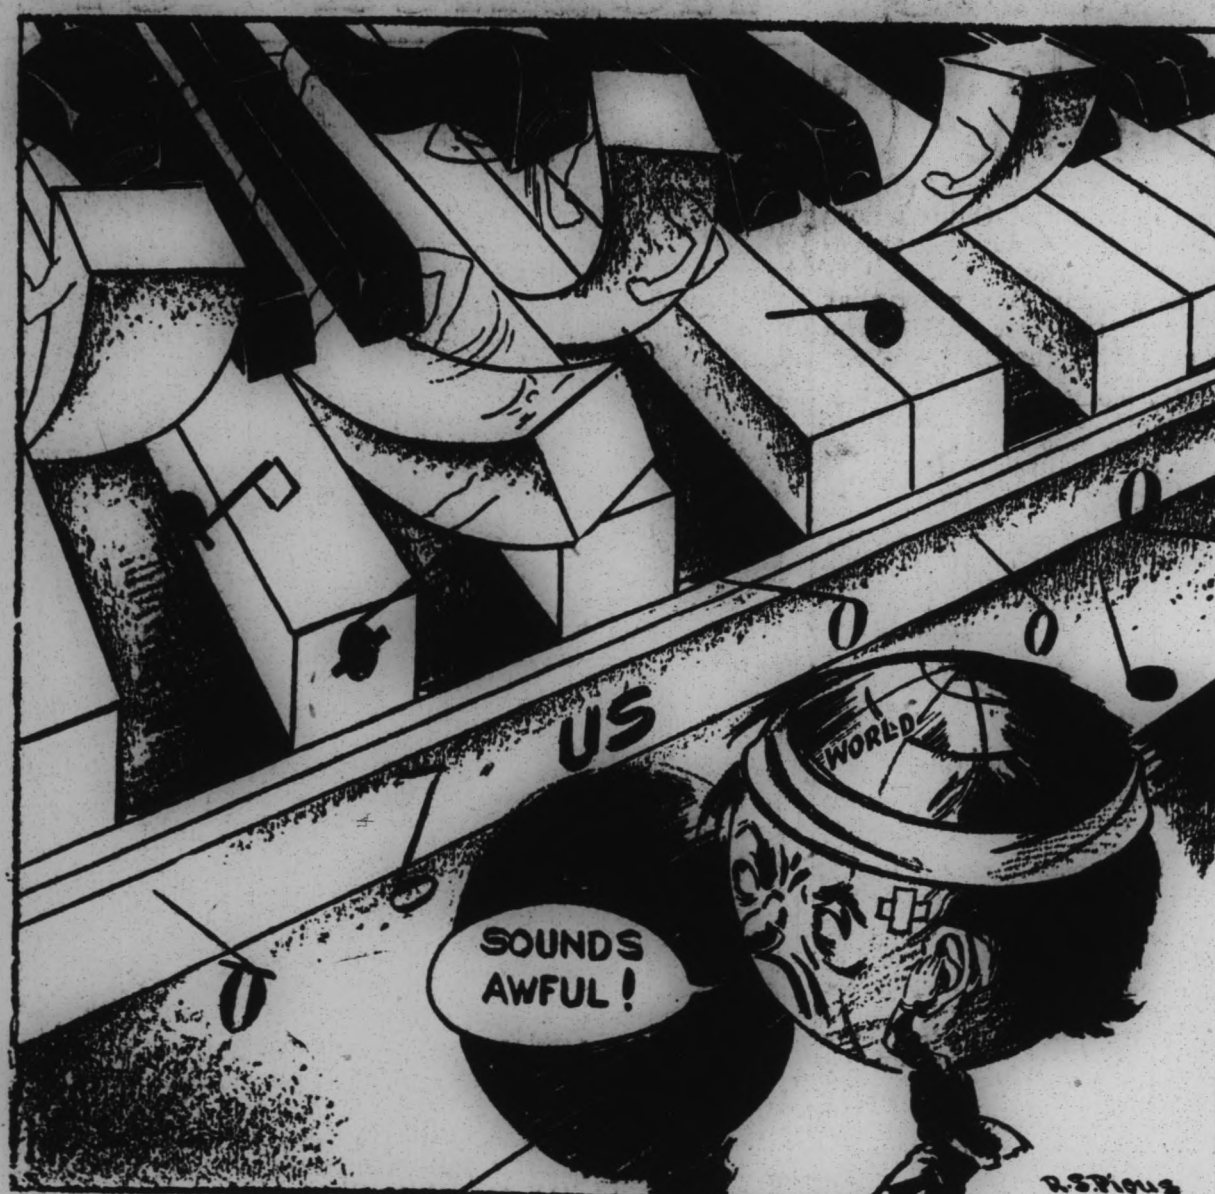

News of Negroes receiving such recognition continues noteworthy, although the day is clearly in sight when such recognition will be commonplace. Dr. Wilkins was obviously included in the group because he was qualified.

The Department of State has merely recognized his qualifications in placing him among the group of technical advisors drawn from more than 50 different laboratories, educational institutions, industrial organizations and research groups in addition to several government agencies who will "make contributions to every segment of the comprehensive agenda prepared for the conference."

The Negro is getting along faster than many of us realize, especially in those areas where ability counts most. Nowadays there are not many really qualified people, particularly in the technological fields, who are not finding positions commensurate with their skills.

It is, we feel, because the Negro of the '50s knows that he MUST qualify, he MUST be better than good. Segregation is a hard nut to crack, and a good hammer must be used.

No, the day is not far off when the presence of Negroes in all major undertakings will be accepted as a matter of course.

Theory versus Practice

One of the most brazen and reprehensible humbugs I ever heard of was a young colored man who practiced medicine with exceptional success for three years in New York City without having had any formal medical training. He picked up what he knew incidentally after consultation with patients.

He started out to serve colored people only but his magnificent Park Avenue office soon came to be filled almost constantly with wealthy white persons—mostly women.

Thus encouraged, he quickly decided to charge such fees as only the very wealthy could pay. Prominently displayed on his office walls were diplomas showing that he got his liberal arts education at England's renowned Oxford University and his medical schooling at America's equally celebrated Harvard University.

HE MAY HAVE been influenced by P. T. Barnum's opinion of American gullibility and the rather general human ineptitude. The great American showman said that a sucker is born in this country every minute and that the American people enjoy being hoodwinked.

Whatever the compelling reason for his acts may have been, his fraudulent scheme was operated smoothly and effectively until he made the blunder that seems to be the fate of all criminals.

That slip will be revealed later herein. The fake doctor would question patients minutely about whatever aches and pains he would hand the caller a harmless pill, telling him when to return.

Next, as soon as he could get away from the office, he would hurry to a medical library and study everything he could find about the ailments of which patients had complained.

Thus rapidly he acquired considerable capacity to treat diseases. HE STUDIED surgery and did not hesitate to perform many minor operations in his office, having acquired quite a number of costly surgical instruments.

The man so seeking to enter the medical profession by stealth apparently in time came to think himself so securely established that he need have no fear of being exposed.

But he was mistaken. The old saying about pride going before a fall was true in his case.

His undoing resulted from his attempt to arrange to perform a major operation in a large and well-known hospital. The institution demanded credentials showing him to be a bona fide physician and surgeon. He of course could not produce the evidence required.

AN INVESTIGATION showed that he not only never had studied at Oxford but never even had been to England.

Harvard never had heard of him. The Oxford and Harvard diplomas he had made himself. Somehow, somewhere he had managed to see Oxford and Harvard diplomas.

The impostor was arrested and sent to Bellevue Hospital to be examined to see if he suffered from some kind of a mental aberration.

But Bellevue doctors described him as being not only normal but as having a mentality approaching that of a genius. They felt that he should be given a good medical education so that society could benefit from his superior ability, whose devotion to ignoble purposes they deplored greatly.

In court many former patients testified that he was a remarkable doctor.

The judge, nevertheless, thought they were about as much deserving of blame as the young man himself was, arguing that he could not have posed as a doctor for three years if no patients had sought his services and if people knew enough to avoid pretenders.

The judge withheld his decision in order to study the case. I never learned what disposition the judge made of the case.

THE YOUTH could have sought to be a doctor as he did from hearing how formerly some doctors and lawyers got both theory and practice by the apprenticeship method.

Georgia Decree Strikes At Root Of Civil Liberties

The trampling of civil liberties of Negroes is an old story in Georgia, but usually in the past the state has been contented to allow the rule of lynch law to take care of the usurping of the rights of the Negro minority while the state government has made farcical attempt to "track down the perpetrators."

But last week Negro Attorney General Eugene Cox had the Georgia State Board of Education to issue a decree to the effect that Negro teachers in the Cracker state are forbidden to belong to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People or to support, encourage, condone, or agree to teach a mixed class.

Georgia teachers affected by the decree are given until September 15 to resign from the NAACP and to take an oath to that effect.

Not only is this decree a direct defiance of the May 31, 1955 decision of the U. S. Supreme court, it is also a frontal attack upon the civil rights of teachers as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the Constitution.

It puts in jeopardy the rights not only of Negro teachers but every American wage earner.

FOR IF such an order is allowed to stand, the state could with equal logic and ease bar from employment any person for no other reason than that he belonged to a certain church, club, fraternal order or labor organization working in conformity with our constitutional system.

Even if the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People were not a loyal American organization, forcing of employees to sign statements or to swear that they do not belong to it would be an infringement upon the individual's right under the Fifth Amendment which protects him against testifying against himself.

In a case involving alleged subversive organizations in Massachusetts last week, the State Supreme Court ruled a proposed act which would make it mandatory for any college, university or school public or private, to discharge any professor, instructor or teacher who had refused to answer "at a duly constituted trial, or at certain hearings or inquiries certain questions pertinent to his membership in the Communist party."

IN HOLDING THAT the proposed act would be unconstitutional the Massachusetts Supreme Court used the following language:

"It must be clear that if the General Court should pass a purported statute to the effect that no teacher should avail himself of his right not to testify or furnish evidence against himself, such purported statute would be in direct contradiction of the constitutional provisions and would be void."

"So also would a purported statute that should seek to penalize as by fine or imprisonment a person who should exercise his constitutional right. It is true that the proposed statute does not quite do any of the things just suggested but it does something of comparable effect."

"IT MAKES an indirect but hardly less serious attack upon the constitutional right. It attempts to say to any teacher in a college or school, whether public or private, that if he exercises his right he shall be deprived of his employment and means of livelihood. It would bar him from any future employment as a school teacher, since if he should obtain such employment, the statute would operate again to compel his discharge."

"It would seem that the proposed statute would practically destroy the constitutional right of certain persons to engage in the occupation of teaching for no reason than that they had exercised another constitutional right—the right not to incriminate themselves."

"... IF IT IS constitutional to prohibit a teacher from private employment on the ground that he has availed himself of the right not to incriminate himself, it would seem that it would be equally constitutional to prohibit on the same ground a lawyer from practicing his profession, or a reporter or editor from being employed by a newspaper or magazine, or perhaps even a clergyman from entering into an engagement with a church. Perhaps these and many other occupations have almost, if not quite, as great an opportunity to influence public opinion as have teachers."

"The Supreme Court of the United States in a somewhat different connection said, 'if the state may compel the surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a surrender of all.'"

"It is conceivable that guarantees embedded in the Constitution of the United States may thus be manipulated out of existence."

THE RULING of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, while covering a slightly different type of case, does, however point to the danger of allowing the Georgia decree to pass unchallenged and its quote from a ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court gives an indication of how that body would rule should the case have to go so far.

Attorney General Eugene Cox and the Nazi-minded Georgia State Board of Education art perhaps thick-headed enough to think that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which has spent over two hundred thousand dollars preparing the school segregation cases for the Supreme Court, would sit idly by while they make mockery of the basic law of the land.

THEY CAN REST assured that they will be challenged. They will have to learn that no such human "terminals" as they shall be allowed to destroy the foundations of American democracy.

BETWEEN THE LINES

Prophet-Stoning Bad Business

When Jerusalem decided to stone the prophets instead of hearkening to their words of wisdom and warning, she was hastening her own impending doom.

Telling people of their sins has its dangers in ancient times; and it has its dangers now.

It is true that today we have a multiplicity of preachers seeking to be "popular" with the masses; but in the last analysis these popularizing preachers dare not tell Israel of his sins.

In all ages the prophets have been stoned; and if Jesus Christ would come in person to some of our large cities, he would hardly be found at some of our most popular churches, but perhaps in some secluded sections where some humble preacher is seeking not to be "popular" but to tell the story of the wrath that sin brings upon the people.

We see reenacted here in the Old South the tragedy of old which is the tragedy of prophet—stoning. The Old South dieth hard indeed.

Instead of searching itself and turning from the ways that will in the end spell its doom, the Old South is quite content to stone the Supreme Court and the NAACP which are the best friends the Old South has ever had.

IT IS DIFFICULT for the Old South to imagine that the time will soon come when the shame of race prejudice and discrimination will be like unto the shame of human slavery, and in such time there will be thanks to God for the Supreme court and the NAACP.

These in retrospect, will appear as prophets of a new world order, offering the South a chance for glory and greatness.

For if the Old South can be converted unto brotherhood and democracy and Christianity, it is quite conceivable that it may become the moral garden spot of the world. Its great travail will be its great means of ripening upon glory and greatness.

One of the highest tributes that could be paid to the NAACP is being paid indirectly by certain sectors of the Old South which are out to penalize Negroes for membership in the organization.

THIS COLUMN feared months ago that an irate Old South would seek retaliation. It has appeared in the current attempt to penalize the Negro teachers for membership in the only organization promising liberation from second-class citizenship.

To deny Negroes the privilege of joining an organization to do collectively what they could never do individually, is to refuse a life line to a drowning man. Under the tutelage of the NAACP the Negro in America has come a long way.

Through its fight, Negroes have been emboldened to look up not down, ahead not back! And now come reports that the arch exponents of the mores of the Old South are out to crush without mercy Negro teachers who hold membership in the local NAACP.

Of course Negroes are not going to be fooled into renouncing allegiance to the organization that has cracked the door of full-fledged citizenship in this country.

NEGROES MUST find a way to circumvent the machinations of these modern Pharaohs who are determined that they will not let the people go.

If a sector of the Old South can find a way to circumvent the mandates of the United States Supreme Court, it should be easy for a Negro teacher to circumvent the design to prevent his membership in a body that is four-square in the world.

If the Old South can defeat the law the Negro teacher must surely find a way to retain allegiance to the NAACP which is strictly within the law.

If there have been any doubts in the minds of Negroes as to whether or not to support the NAACP, those doubts should be resolved in view of the stubborn opposition now being raised against the NAACP.

It must be great and powerful if an effort, puny though it is, is made to stamp out the NAACP root and branch.

IT MUST BE GREAT when men like Talmadge and his Georgia cohorts resolve to drive it out of Georgia by penalizing membership therein.

If there is a Negro teacher in Georgia who does not know how to handle the matter of supporting the NAACP and at the same time retaining her place as a teacher, then she does not know enough to teach anybody's school.

Stick with the prophets the Talmadges are stoning. Why does Talmadge have to know what goes on "under the table?"

Sad Sam Jones Beats Mighty Don Newcombe

CHICAGO — Sad Sam Jones, the wild Chicago Cubs pitcher who so far is the only major leaguer to pitch a no-hitter this season, posted another brilliant performance Monday afternoon when he beat great Don Newcombe and the rampaging Brooklyn Dodgers.

SAD SAM WENT ALL THE WAY and gave up only four hits while walking six in the 1-0 victory. Newcombe gave up six hits and walked only one in the outstanding pitching duel.

Second Baseman Gene Baker hit his eighth homer of the season in the eighth inning to break the scoreless battle open and give the Cubs a sweep of a three-game series with the first-place Dodgers.

Baker was the Chicago star from any point of view as he had collected a single and a double earlier and wound up with half the Cub hits.

NEWCOMBE WAS SHOOTING FOR HIS 19TH against a single defeat and looked good with a five-hit shutout before the fateful arrival of Baker.

Newcombe's only other defeat this year also was delivered by the Cubs, June 12 at Brooklyn when Chicago scored nine runs off him in 5 1/3 innings to win 9-5.

JONES HADN'T WON A GAME IN A MONTH. He was in trouble in the second and fifth innings, leading the bases in each instance. However, he managed to get Newcombe and Roy Campanella to ground into third outs.

Sad Sam ran his league-leading strikeout total to 143 with seven whiffs, and his walks to 138.

This was Newcombe's first loss on the road of the season against 12 victories and the first time he has ever lost a game at Wrigley Field. He previously defeated the Cubs eight times here.

"Better'n No-Hitter," Sad Sam Says

CHICAGO—Sad Sam Jones said he got a bigger kick out of beating Don Newcombe Monday than he did out of throwing that no-hitter earlier in the season against Pittsburgh.

"I threw a better game," Sam said, "and beating Newcombe was great. Real Great."

Manager Stan Hack, who almost jerked Jones when he walked the first three men in the ninth inning of his no-hitter, said he never even thought of taking Jones out Monday when he filled the bases.

J. C. Caroline Examined for Army Service

CHICAGO—J. C. Caroline, All-American Illinois halfback who had eligibility troubles this summer, was having troubles with Uncle Sam this week.

The captain-elect of the Illini grid squad was being examined for Army service and draft status depended upon further examination of a football shoulder injury.

His left shoulder was injured in the Syracuse game early last season and his play was far below par behind a weak team.

Naptown Youth Wins Chicago Golf Title

CHICAGO — Forest P. Jones, outstanding Indianapolis junior golfer, captured first place in the junior division of Mid-West District Golf Tournament held Sunday at the Pite-O-Pace Golf Course here.

The June Indianapolis Shortridge high school graduate qualified last Saturday with a 77. He flashed great form Sunday as he mastered the field with a 75.

As a result of his victory he will get an expense-paid trip to the National tourney to be held Aug. 22 through 26 in Detroit.

Isiah Bridgeforth and Larry Jones were other Indianapolis juniors entered.

Monarchs, Stars Play Shrine Game Fri. Nite

Advance ticket sales over last weekend and early this week indicated that a big crowd would be on hand at Victory Field Friday night to witness the mammoth show and the sixth annual Shrine baseball game, pitting the Kansas City Monarchs against the Detroit Stars.

Ticket sales were jumping briskly at the numerous outlets throughout the city, according to Grady B. Hinkle and Mrs. Gertrude Neal, chairmen of the joint committees planning and directing the affair.

Hinkle is past president of Persian Temple No. 46 and Mrs. Neal is past commandress of Persian Court No. 23.

PERSIAN TEMPLE NO. 46 AND PERSIAN COURT NO. 23 were sponsors of the game and were to present the gigantic show, featuring the Persian Patrol, the Persian Temple Brass Band and the Persian Temple Chanters.

THE FLYING NESBITTS, sensational acrobatic team which has appeared on TV shows, was to highlight the show with their breath-taking circus act after the fifth inning.

A HUGE MOTORCADE was to be formed in front of the Masonic Hall, 351 Indiana, and led to the ball park by motorcycle policemen. The public was invited to join the motorcade.

The motorcade was scheduled to leave for Victory Field at 7 p.m. and the pre-game show was to start at 7:30 with the game to begin at 8 p.m.

The game itself promised to be the biggest show as the Monarchs, winners of the first half of the American League race, was expected to throw everything into the fight against Detroit, second in the league.

Satterfield-Valdez Go

CHICAGO (ANP)—Bob Satterfield gets his big chance Aug. 17 when he tangles with Nino Valdez of Cuba, the No. 2 heavyweight boxing challenger.

The two will meet in the Chicago Stadium in a nationally televised bout.

Although Valdez is expected to be the favorite, Satterfield packs the punch to put him away. He has killed 30 of the 60 opponents he has faced to date.

SUGAR RAY SUSPENDED

BOSTON, Mass. (ANP) — The Massachusetts Boxing Commission suspended former middleweight champion, Sugar Ray Robinson and three of his managers on Thursday, for failing to keep their contract.

The quartet was suspended because it failed to fulfill a March contract with the Gallahan A. C. and for failure to repay $2,500 which promoter Sam Silverman reportedly advanced them for expenses.

The fight was scheduled here on March 5.

The prepared statement from the Commission read:

"The Massachusetts Boxing Commission has suspended boxer Ray Robinson and his managers, George Gaffney, Ernie Bracca, and Vic Marsala . . . until such time as Robinson or his managers reimburse the Callahan A. C. the sum of $2,500 as they agreed to do for expenses incurred in connection with the cancelled March 5 boxing show in which Robinson was to have participated in the main bout."

Archie's Camp Buzzing With Confidence

NORTH ADAMS, Mass.—There's such confidence in the air here at the Archie Moore Training camp that no one goes around saying, "If Archie wins the title." Everything here is, "When Archie wins the title."

The training site — Camp Kenwood — is a small boys camp on Windsor Lake, about 140 miles west of Boston.

This is where Archie first started on his way up.

Archie arrived from New York last week by plane with Bob Reece of Toledo, one of his advisors, who financed his recent newspaper campaign.

Moore will begin his training at Glovers Bow, an open air arena, surrounded by a wooden fence, formerly known as Meadowbrook Arena. Archie once fought there, many years ago, it was learned.

This week Moore starts his boxing. But the thing that impresses most who have visited here, is the complete confidence that come September 20th—there will be a new world's heavyweight champion in Mr. Archie Moore.

Doby Sets Record

Larry Doby, star outfielder of the Cleveland Indians, set an American League record of 158 straight games without an error Wednesday of last week and the major mark is 187, held by Danny Litwhiler.

An important cog in the fast-moving wheel which has carried the Indians into the very thick of the pennant fight, Doby is hitting .294.

AL GETS HIMSELF ONE: Al Smith, Cleveland third sacker whose sterling play throughout the season has been a prime factor in the Indians' rise to the top in the American League, puts out Chico Carasquel, Chicago White Sox shortstop, in a recent game.

Smith, former Indianapolis Indian who hasn't received a just share of the spotlight afforded other Cleveland stars this season, leads his team in batting and is third in the league with a mark of .315. He has scored 83 runs, batted in 58 and hit 15 homers.

Florida Little League Players Vote Against South -- Play Negroes

ORLANDO, Fla.—The Florida Little League baseball tournament, confused because a Negro team was entered, straightened itself out Tuesday morning as the white teams left in the tourney agreed to play against "any team."

The city stepped aside and left the decision to Little League officials.

The Pensacola "Jaycees," winners of the Northwest Florida district title by default because white teams refused to play them, started the dispute here when they showed up to participate in the state meet.

THEY DREW A BYE IN FIRST ROUND competition and sat on the sidelines until Tuesday night's play.

Tom Starling, Orlando recreation administrator, said "at least three" of the white teams threatened to "back up and go home" if forced to play the Negroes.

Orlando beat Tallahassee Monday and was scheduled to meet the "Jaycees" Tuesday.

One of Orlando's team coaches, Dwight de Dyer, resigned because of the situation and another coach, Mel Riverbank, said he was considering similar action.

BUT ORLANDO PLAYERS and their parents voted to play as scheduled and were favored to eliminate Pensacola.

St. Petersburg Manager Harry Repaid told a newsman his team would refuse to take the field but he later denied he said it and the team sponsors in St. Petersburg said "the team will take on any future opponent, whether it be Negro or White."

St. Petersburg beat Ft. Lauderdale 6-3 in the opening round. However they were the underdogs in a game with Miami Tuesday.

THE CITY OF ORLANDO STEP-PEL OUT of the controversy after Assistant City Attorney Donald P. Senterstitt said there was no state law nor city ordinance against a Negro team meeting a white team.

"In view of this I don't know what we can do," Mayor J. Rolfe Davis said.

Senterstitt pointed out that it had been customary in the past not to allow contests between all-white and all-Negro teams.

Arnold White, director of the state tournament, said National Little League headquarters at Wilkesport, Pa., ruled the Pensacola team eligible for the playoffs.

'Hurricane' Blows Down Ezz Charles

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (ANP)—Kangaroo-punching Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson was in no mood to be tamed last week as he absorbed everything Ezzard Charles threw at him then outlasted the Cincinnati to win a unanimous 10 round decision in a bout staged in the War Memorial auditorium here.

Charles, a 240-lb pre-fight favorite, pounded the dancing Jackson with hard lefts to the body and scored with rights to the jaw.

However, Jackson shook off the punches and came back for more.

Blasts 21 Homers In 41 Games; Compared To Great Honus Wagner

CHICAGO—If some drastic, unforeseen event doesn't occur, Ernie Banks, Chicago Cubs shortstop, will set a new record for home runs by a major league shortstop and will become as great, if not greater hitting shortstop than Honus Wagner.

With 38 homers through Thursday, Ernie needed only one circuit clout the rest of the season to tie the mark set in 1949 by the Boston Red Sox' Vern Stephens.

Wagner, generally acknowledged as the best all-around shortstop in baseball history, led the National League in batting eight times in the early 1900s and over 21 years had a batting average of .329.

At this point, however, there is no comparison of the two since Banks is only a sophomore in the major ranks. But there are no other shortstops who can stand up to Banks' early feats at the plate.

BANKS BLASTED THREE HOMERS out of Wrigley Field against Pittsburgh Thursday of last week, driving in seven runs and leading the Cubs to an 11-10 victory.

Later in the week he hit another round-tripper off the Brooklyn Dodgers.

His blazing bat raised his runs batted-in total to 90 through Sunday, a new RBI total for a Cub Shortstop. Roy Smalley, Banks' predecessor, set the old mark at 85.

Banks, a right-handed hitter, got 21 of his homers in 41 games. He picked up five in five games with the Pirates.

IN HIS FIRST FULL SEASON with the Cubs last year, the slugging shortstop hit 19 home runs, and had 79 RBIs while hitting .275.

Currently he is hitting .298. At 24 years of age, Banks is thin and gangly with 170 pounds distributed over a 6-1 frame. He doesn't have the slugger's physique.

How does he hit so many homers? Marty Marion, the Cubs' manager, says

"He has fine strong wrists and a good eye. And he doesn't mind taking strikes and waiting for the pitch he wants."

Ernie came directly to the Cubs from the Kansas City Monarchs of the Negro American League late in 1953. He played only a few games that season.

Akins Eyes 'Big' Martinez 'Go' As Logart Protests

NEW YORK — Virgil Akins' strong finish earned him a split decision over Cuban Isaac Logart Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena and brought him an offer Tuesday of a "big outdoor fight at Newark, N. J., on Sept. 26 or Oct. 3."

Akins, St. Louis' fifth-ranking welterweight, was offered a bout with fourth-ranking Vince Martinez of Patterson, N. J.

Tex Sullivan's London Sporting Club which staged the Akins-Logart fight, said it could guarantee Akins and Martinez $27,500 apiece as their purses from an expected $100,000 gate and $50,000 TV tab.

Akins has a tentative match slated for Indianapolis' Victory Field Sept. 13 with one of three opponents: Pat Lowry, Johnny Lombardo or Baby Face Jones.

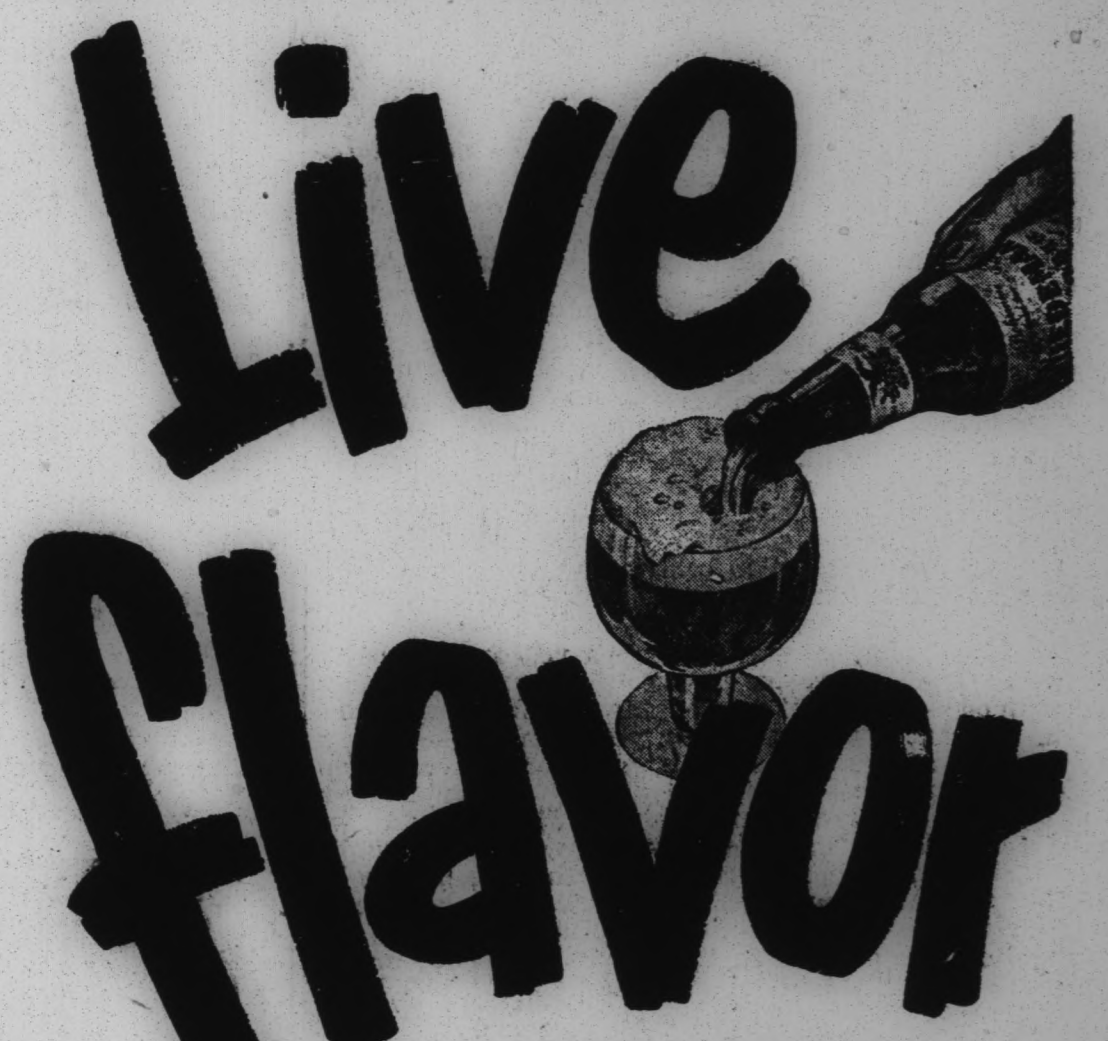

While Akins was busy dickering for the big money fight, Logart was busy protesting the decision in his fight with the St. Louis better.

Greer, Triplett In All-Star Grid Game At Chicago

CHICAGO (ANP) — Two penn stars, Roosevelt Greer of Penn State and Mel Triplett of Toledo University are members of the 48-man all-star football squad which was to tangle with the world champion Cleveland Browns in Soldier Field here Friday night.

Greer and Triplett were expected to see action during the 24th annual contest originated by the late Arch Ward of the Chicago Tribune. The Tribune sponsors the game annually, with proceeds going to the Tribune Charities, Inc.

BETTYE TAFT
Guest Columnist

Hello there, dear Saint:

It's been several full moons since we last penned you a bit of happenings along the main stem, and coincidentally with the last article we wrote about 'fathers', etc., we found this bit of Hoosier Homespun conducted in the Indianapolis News by Griff Niblack in which he quoted from our favorite The Terre Haute Star . . . "A Thought For The Evening" (July 14) he called it. The thought: "To a husband, HOME IS ANY OLD PLACE where he can toss his clothes, ANY OLD PLACE." . . . Wives, take heed. We happen to know some husbands, quite a few of them, too, who have liberally provide home with luxuries, etc., to please lil ole wifey, only to be denied the privileges of home, which is supposed to be a man's castle . . . 'nuff said, you say? Okay. . .

While folks are ga-ga about going to Tony's until the newness wears over . . . we have been pickin' up on ole friends . . . like the Bernard Williams . . . 'Mr. and Mrs. Tuggie' . . . and watta gal Mrs. Tuggie is . . . Friendly and congenial to patrons, while Mr. Moon and Cora Bradley do their share of dispensing . . . Mrs. Myrtle Gould carries on with home cooked vegetable dinners and short orders . . . Incidentally, Doc Stoner has a favorite glass at this spot, and boy, what a glass . . . Once in awhile, he drops in to chat-chit with the Tuggies . . . The Great Goodie makes frequent stops also . . . While we were vacationing, we had occasion to pow-wow with Mrs. Edna Neal and Mrs. Alice Page Phillips at their favorite haunt . . . The Owl with Abe Jaffe in charge doin' a friendly buzzin' . . . assisted by Namon Williams, Ravelle Elzy and Hattie Wilson and Nora . . . For latest news events regarding 'your people' Abe Jaffe collects clippings, etc., and he is glad to show them to you . . . He's more in the know about "us" than some of "us" are . . . 'nuff, said. . .

Recently, we've had to swallow and fight tears that welled into our eyes at the passing of some very dear and old friends . . . like the Rev. David C. Venerable, Roy Miller, Frank James, Fred (Pops) Lewis, Uncle Johnny Wells and others . . . it is here that we should like to especially express heartfelt sympathies to their survivors and to likewise include the family of Atty. Mercer M. Mance in the passing of his mother . . . To Katy Watkins, we were deeply grieved to hear of the passing of her wonderful mother, Mrs. Lucy Watkins, who was a 'mother' to many of us . . . But we have learned to accept this transition as one inevitable and we try during the times that we meet old friends to express our sentiments or give them flowers while they live . . . we hereby submit this little thought by Daniel Webster Hoyt . . .

If you have a friend worth loving,
Love him, yes, and let him know
That you love him, ere life's evening
Tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words ne'er be said,
Of a friend till he is dead?

Some choice scooping . . . What favorite waitress at a favorite spot threw a choice T-bone steak at a well known sergeant at another favorite spot? whoops . . . if you missed it, you'll never know who-did-it, because we'll never tell it . . . but it was real cute and we just had to mention . . . Pete Olden and Oscar Pryor took off motor-style last-week-end-ago for Old Mexico, Mexico City and other points West . . . They had a party, of course, and were picking up friends also in St. Louis . . . we know this will be a fun-trip and we expect cards to verify it and maybe a gift from Mexico . . . Miss Norma Rouse, Speights Beauty Shop operator is fast taking a nod as no. 1 Satin Tress designer . . . The thing is a wig within itself . . . and we advocate more of 'em and how . . . Recently our nephew, Philip Stepp, Cleveland, but who has two more years in the United States Navy, was here to visit with us . . . He has been around the world, but he definitely says that Naptown has the prettiest girls (young ones, that is) and that when his stretch is over, he'll make this his home . . . Really, there are many beautiful bouquets to behold in this No Mean City, and if you don't believe it, you just attend a wedding of youngsters or go to one of the Pop-Jazz concerts and look-see, for yourself . . . And now, Saint, we may never pen you another letter via The Avenue . . . we have come to the end of another chapter in our lives . . . "Your daughter ris your daughter all of your life, but your son is only your son 'til he gets a wife." . . . we've spent many years along the main stem, watching, learning and relating life as we saw it to our children . . . Since boys are always harder to raise than girls . . . we stayed a little longer than we intended to stay . . . but it was worth it, for we feel proud to say that we believe he has made a definite step to making a good man . . . at least we have tried to steer him clear of pit-falls, etc., so the Avenue has little or nothing to offer us just now, and if permissible we may at a later date, write a farewell letter to the Avenue, via your space . . . we have lots we'd like to say to those coming along the main stem after us . . . To some folk it's a bad street, but if you have your eyes wide-open and understand life and all the peoples who make it up, you can travel upon it and not get hurt . . . We have learned a many a lesson on the street that "begins with a pawn shop and ends at 'city hospital'" . . . Lessons that have helped us to face life as it came and to start in a new channel just now . . . We won't be giving up writing, but since God gave it to us, we feel that we would like to give some of this talent to His glory . . . thanks again for space . . . but before we go . . . here's a scoop on what to expect in the lighter brother's spots from now on . . . At The Keys, exclusively n. meridian street, Joe Craig decided to enhance his masculine neatness with a Sugar Ray process . . . lo, the fellows with whom he serves complimented him, etc, but the manager blew his natural top . . . can you imagine such a thing . . . so you boys be careful getting prettied up . . . your lighter brothers are afraid, perhaps, you might look too divinely charming to the lighter babes . . . they might as well face it . . . it's here, and here to stay . . . we know that this is 'nuff said . . .

Fabulous Dance Team Back In Show Bizzness

The world-famous Berry Brothers, once the most fabulous Negro dance team in show business, last weekend emerged from the shadows of retirement to score a smashing comeback at Wingdale Lodge—and if the roaring applause which greeted their guest appearance at New York's most popular interracial summer spot was any indication the Berry's four-year absence has only made the hearts of their faithful fans grow fonder.

There are only two Berrys now, brother Annanias, the big gun of the act, having suddenly passed away in 1951—but just one look at the familiar faces of Jummy and Warren as they ripped into their new act was enough to set Wingdale Lodge's interracial audience to stompin' its feet and pounding its palms.

"I'm Gonna Live Till I Die," sang brother Warren as he trotted on stage to a tumultuous welcome. "And I'm Gonna Dance Till I Die!" shouted back brother James as he jumped from the wings, his flying feet quickly showing that father time has dimmed little of the old Berry magic.

"Oh, it's great to be coming back," said the Berrys, interviewed later, after the last curtain call had been happily accommodated, "and it's particularly great to be starting the act again at a wonderful interracial resort like Wingdale Lodge. You know, we've always fought against segregation wherever we played. More places like Wingdale Lodge all over the country, and old jimcrow will really go!

Now showing at the COOL Walker theater thru Saturday is "Chicago Syndicate" with Dennis O'Keefe and Abbe Lane. On the same bill is "Asphalt Jungle" with Sterling Hayden and Marilyn Monroe.

WILLIE MABON NAMED "MR. HANDSOME"
NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mabon has been selected "Mr. Handsome" of the septa entertainment field. The Memphis-born singer, shouter and piano-blunker won the honor in a nation-wide "straw vote."

After skyrocketing to success with his "I Don't Know" rendition, Mabon formed his own band and waded two more hits, "I'm Mad" and "Polon Ivy."

SAMMY DAVIS, JR. ATTRACTS ONLY THE BEST

'SEEN' STARS

By DELORES CALVIN

NEW YORK (CNS)—Pearl Bailey has a wonderful new outlet in Paramount's "King of Hearts" with Bob Hope, Academy Award Winner Eva Marie Saint and George Sanders. Pearl has been signed for a top role, so says the studio. It's certainly about time her histrionic talents were recognized.

Maria Cole — the wife of Nat "King"—keeps denying she's returning to her singing career. . . . Now, Maria, how about this book-ing of yours at Ciro's in Hollywood wherein you precede your hubby's engagement at the same swank club?

Imagine Louis Armstrong having a partner in Lily Pons, the Metropolitan Opera coloratura. The only snag was that Lily's booked with engagements at the time the Joe Pasternak production of "Viva Las Vegas" was to begin and so had to beg off. Both she and Louis were disappointed.

Diahann Carroll—the petite star of "House of Flowers" is on the recovery list and back in business at Monte Proser's "La Vie En Rose." Only 19, Diahann was a pretty sick girl. But that's behind her as she shares billing with Jackie Miles in this night club stint.

Ella Fitzgerald has been 20 years in showbusiness. Her current stand at Basin Street will be giving her the traditional party. . . . Time Magazine cover girls and boys—if they're in the field of Sports—are suppose to run into jinxes despite the tremendous publicity derived. This week's cover — Roy Campanella is not one to go for a jinx. He promptly hit a two-down, two-on homer in the ninth inning against the Braves to give the Brooks an 11-10 thriller and stretch their lead, the longest this season.

The death of Charles Murray, Sr., prey of Murray's Superior Products Co., really saddened us. Here was a man who lived to reap the benefits of building a truly successful business. He enjoyed life, excelled in good living. He was a chef of unusually good taste which he used on his staff and business acquaintances. He was active in anything that was "going places" in Chicago. He was young at 69, so that we can hardly believe he's really gone. We wish his family Godspeed in carrying on and expanding the Murray Co.

BILL DOGGETT'S "QUAKER CITY" DISC CLICKS WITH QUAKERS

Hammond organist Bill Doggett was a favorite son with Philadelphians long before his newest recording "Quaker City" began to move up in the Rhythm & Blues hit parade. Doggett, who was born in Philly, has long been regarded as the local boy who made good.

Right now Bill Doggett is enjoying the best years of his life with such popular recording hits as "Quaker City," "High Heels," "True Blue," "King Bee" and "Sweet Slumber" to his credit.

Bill, whose real name is William Ballard Doggett, has just completed one of the biggest cross-country tours of his career—taking in engagements at spots in Los Angeles, Calif., Oklahoma, Texas, Illinois and Ohio. Featuring an organ, tenor saxophone, guitar and drums, the Bill Doggett aggregation is fast becoming the nation's most sought after small combo. A smash hit with the Top Ten

BILL DOGGETT

Rhythm & Blues Revue last year, Doggett is already slated to do a repeat performance when the 1955 edition of the popular star-studded entertainment packages get under way.

Go! Go! Go! McNeely Gone Again!

GO! GO! GO! Get out that smelling salts. Call out the state militia and riot squad. Get that door ajar in the Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame and give Davy Crockett's hair-raising stories back to the Indians. Big Jay McNeely, that sax wizard who blows the zaniest honks, shrieks, whistles and grunts in the land of Rhythm & Blues, is on the loose again.

Big Jay, standing 5' 11" and weighing in at a husky 240 lbs., put every ounce of his big frame into his panic-making Rock'n' Roll style. Blowing what he jokingly calls a "tortured saxophone that literally mesmerizes my fans," McNeely has just wound up a madcap Fourth of July week rendezvous at Weekee's Tavern in Atlantic City, N. J.

The powerhouse saxophone artist, who has been known to jam for an unheard of 45 minutes (and that's the union limit) has shifted his Rock 'em and Roll 'em performance to the middle-west for a week beginning July 8, where he'll proceed to pulverize Cleveland, Ohio's hot jazz lovers at the Loop Lounge.

From there Big Jay jumps out West to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas for an extended session. A guy who believes in giving an audience its money's worth, Mc-

Neely says "no matter how much I have to give out to do it, I give when I blow. And I think most of my fans get the same sic the same way I do. You see, in glow."

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By ROGER JONES
Guest Columnist

Greeting fans and readers of the Musical Upbeat Column.

It is a pleasure and a thrill to be writing for you this week. I will attempt to bring you some interesting talk about the musical world. This is a subject that is nearest to me. Let's take Nite life in Indianapolis. Nite life has been on a steady decline for the last year and a half. Well you might ask the question, why? Ladies and Gentlemen, We don't support our Clubs. Let's say you're not satisfied with the entertainment—well let's come out and give them an opportunity to afford better or more elaborate enjoyment. Let's keep Indianapolis Clubs on a par with other Cities of this size and population.

I have been asked several times what is happening to music, and whether I think big Bands will be back in the future. I will pass my opinions on to you as I gave them to the inquiring party—as to the first question, what is happening to Music?—Music is going through its most trying times since its inception (Modern Music and Jazz). It is fighting for existence with a little thing called Rhythm and Blues, while this is nothing new, (Rhythm and Blues) it is sweeping the Nation and has moved the feet and shoulders of ALL people—along with this rage comes an endless wave of singing Quartets and Quintets doing everything from singing to chorus routines and acrobatics and comedy. Of course the primary things are to entertain your fans and make money. I am not impartial to Rhythm and Blues, but the question was asked what happened to Music. Let's just say it is temporarily over shadowed by one of its by products—Music guides our emotions—it excites us to war—it sometimes brings us to tears, happiness, it stirs our Spiritual being, we play it as a last tribute to our dead—Music will soon come back to the top stronger than ever.

The second question—will large orchestras come back... my opinion... Yes! I believe it has been established that most everything on earth travels in cycles. I would like to mention that small Bands and Combos started coming into prominence again in the forties, to name a few that were instrumental in this trend, I would like to mention the Benny Goodman Trio of the late thirties, which consisted of Benny Goodman, Lionel Hampton, and Teddy Wilson—of course this group was included with the full orchestra. Then came the John Kirby Combo, Raymond Scott Quintet, King Cole Trio, Louis Jordan's Timpani Five and the pattern was set. Then a little later came another type of entertainment in the music line... The Jazz concert which I believe was inspired by organized Jam Sessions which were popular around New York City at the time. Of the Jazz Concerts, the greatest was "Jazz at the Philharmonics." This started an era where dancers and Music lovers were content to sit and listen instead of dancing. Most Clubs and Taverns across the country set up their houses on the style of Birdland, N. Y. So the fans could see and hear their favorite exponent of Be Bop, Progressive, and modern Jazz. So we found our young people coming up in an era where dancing was secondary and so disappeared the large dance band. Big bands will be back. One T. V. program is doing a lot to help Big Bands and that is the Summer Replacement for Jackie Gleason's Show—"America's Greatest Bands" M. C., Paul Whiteman, Sat. 7 p.m. Some other TV programs give Big Bands Guest shots. YES BIG BANDS AND DANCING WILL BE BACK.

Speaking of Music and Musicians I would like to offer best wishes and continued success to another one of Indianapolis' many performers and musicians who have left here and made good... Leroy Vinegar, Bass Violinist, who left here almost two years ago. He went from here to Chicago where he immediately moved into top circles in Music, working with Sonny Stith at the popular Bee Hive. He later had an offer to play with Art Tatum. Leroy then moved to Los Angeles, Cal., where he is working on the "Sunset Strip." I mentioned that to lead up to the fact that Leroy was on Steve Allen's TV Show "Tonight," last Thursday, featured with the Great Tenor Saxman Stan Getz. I am sure most of you saw the program but didn't know that Leroy was an Indianapolis product... I would like to say again, Leroy the best of luck to you... Also I would like to extend to Step Wharton, a very versatile Pianist and performer, the best of health and luck. Step has recuperated from two operations and is back on the road again.

Bill Jennings, Guitarist, who has been featured with the Bill Doggett group and who has also made some records under his own name, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Bill has a twin brother, Al, Guitarist, with whom he played in the earlier days. Here's hoping you a full recovery Bill, and keep up the good work.

A salute to Musicians Union number 3 which has come along way under the capable leadership of its Secretary Lloyd Wilson and the rest of the Official Staff. It is doing a good job of improving working conditions and living standards for Musicians. The Union fought hard during the last State Legislature for later closing hours for all Clubs, Taverns and Bars which would have meant extra revenue and pay for all of those whose living depends on Nite life. Incidentally the Union is moving its Quarters to a new location, which is better and more spacious, on or about the 15th of September. There will be larger office space, a reception room and other facilities for the enjoyment of its members. The new address will be 143 E. Ohio St. Rooms 308-310-312 the phone numbers will be the same ME. 6-3596 and ME. 6-3595—all members remember election of officers comes up this fall, your card must be paid up to date to vote.

I hope this article has been interesting and informative. Thanks for your co-operation... I would like to close with "PATRONIZE LIVE MUSIC!"

BERTHA POWELL

Bertha Powell, for 35 years a top name in show business, this week drew the praise of local theater critics for her performance in "Kiss Me Kate," the Cole Porter musical which opened in the Hilton U. Brown Theatron Tuesday and will close Sunday night.

Miss Powell, who played here in 1951 in the same show at The Indiana Theater but with a different company, opens "Kate" with a solo, "Another Opening, Another Show."

The contralto stays throughout the play, playing maid to "Kate" as the amusing story of backstage life is unfolded. Jacqueline James is outstanding as "Kate" and Ralph Magelssen plays the male lead as if it were tailored for him.

Frankie Lane, star of records and television, will headline a galaxy of the nation's foremost entertainers in two Coliseum shows which will be a featured attraction at this year's Indiana State Fair, August 31 through September 9.

Known throughout the world as "Mr. Rhythm," Frankie will appear on the Coliseum stage for two performances, Thursday, Sept. 1 and Friday, Sept. 2. Showtime is 7:30 p.m. (CST). Sharing the spotlight with Lane will be the equally versatile Nat "King" Cole and supporting acts. Music will be provided by Bandleader Russ Morgan and his familiar and popular "Music in the Morgan Manner."

Frankie Laine definitely established himself in the realm of top male vocalists in 1946 with the release of "That's My Desire." The years preceding this were heart-breaking; he was a determined young man who consistently found fate frowning upon him, always just before that "big break."

Frankie, happily married to actress Nan Grey since June, 1950, now resides in Encino, California.

Tickets may be obtained by writing—Indiana State Fair Ticket Dept.—Indianapolis, Ind.

MARINERS QUARTET

CHICAGO (ANP)—The Mariners Quartet, former Arthur Godfrey singing stars, are faring much better in their current Chez Paree appearance than they did in their Chicago Theatre appearance several weeks ago.

In all probability, the reason for the greater response is the fact that the interracial foursome had a longer spot in the Chez show and can give the audience a wider variety of music. Their theatre date found them putting most of the effort on the pop side and it is the harmonious and semi-classical tunes in which the group excels.

HARRY BELAFONTE

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (ANP)—Harry Belafonte played a return engagement to Las Vegas after several years' absence. He opened here last week in the Clover Room of the ultra swank Hotel Riviera. Belafonte's four-week stint should help the room recover from a couple of past shows that died among discriminating entertainment seekers.

HERE IN "SHOWBOAT": William C. Smith, veteran theater performer, will appear here in the Hilton U. Brown Theatron in "Showboat." The popular Jerome Kern musical will open Tuesday and run through August 28. Mr. Smith will play the role of "Joe" and will sing "Ole Man River" in a key scene.

dancing. William C. Smith plays "Joe," Queenie's husband, and sings "Ole Man River."

Bertha was the understudy for the original "Queenie" when "Showboat" first opened on Broadway at the Ziegfeld Theater.

Born in Atlantic City, N. J., Bertha attended grade school and high school in Baltimore, Md., moving there with her grandparents after her mother died.

She went on to Hampton Institute and later began singing with the Dixie Jubilee Singers in Baltimore hotels and clubs. It was through this group that she got her "break."

The eight-member group went to New York to make some recordings and while there Bertha was signed with a road company and went on the road for 32 weeks. She has been on the road in the best shows ever since.

Earl Bostic Urges Teenagers To Drive Safely Launches Public Appeal To Curb Teenicide

Alarmed at the rapidly increasing highway and street accidents involving America's teenagers, bandleader Earl Bostic is now devoting part of each of his in-person appearances to cautioning young drivers on the dangers of reckless, daredevil automobile driving on the nation's highways and streets. Bostic, who was almost killed in a highway collision several years ago in Florida, said "when you've been as close to death as I was after that accident, you can really appreciate the National Safety Council's slogan: 'Drive carefully—the life you save may be your own.'"

Making a radical departure from his usual job of giving out with lively Rock 'n' Roll tunes, the King recording star laid aside his famous saxophone and started preaching about safety-first and human lives.

"More of us who are in a position to influence modern day teenagers," Bostic said, "should attempt to impress upon their minds the necessity of driving safely at all times. Whenever a performer plays before a house or dance hall packed with teenagers, he should close his performance with a word of caution about safety-first while driving away from the affair. Just a little appeal like that, could help to save a human life."

Bostic, who got his first musical knowledge from a nun while he was a student at Xavier U., has just completed a record-breaking tour of the top jazz spots in California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Anchorage, Alaska.

Blind Singer Gives Program At Kokomo

By BENNIE PECK

KOKOMO — Harold G. Boggs, noted blind singer and radio performer, gave a program recently at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church. A fire drill offering was taken.

Rev. F. F. Young and his congregation of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, rendered a service for the usher board of Mt. Pisgah last Sunday.

The Gospel Chorus of Wayman Chapel AME Church left for Lafayette immediately following morning services last Sunday to deliver a program at Second Baptist Church there. Rev. C. T. H. Watkins delivered the sermon at Lafayette, and dinner was served to the visitors upon their arrival.

Because of the 99th annual communication of the Prince Hall Masonic Lodge of Indiana, Aug. 9-12, the local NAACP has postponed the report by Hollis King on the national NAACP convention until Aug. 22 at Wayman AME Church at 7:30.

Business Tough For Job Seekers
CHICAGO (ANP)—Negroes with college educations, seeking jobs in business, face more discrimination than other Negro job seekers. This conclusion was reached as a result of a survey by Prof. Charles E. Howell, chairman of the Illinois Committee on Discrimination in Higher Education. Howell said the survey, based on a one-year study in the state, showed that business jobs had the most discriminatory strings attached, teaching positions the fewest.

LEVELE—In loving memory of who passed away August 11, 1950.

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain.
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Aunt Rachel Reese
and Family

BLEDSE—In loving memory of EVA BLEDSE who passed away, August 19, 1951.

ness,

But knowing that some day we'll find thee
Gives us courage to go on.

New York, N. Y. (Special)—
For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified
by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly.
And, while gently relieving pain,
actual retraction or retraction
(shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make astonishing statements as

Paul Robeson Takes Legal Action To Get Passport

By ALICE A. DUNNIGAN

WASHINGTON (ANP)—Paul Robeson, famous concert artist, filed a motion in the District Court here last week, asking that the State department be enjoined from denying him a passport or preventing him from traveling to other countries outside of the United States.

A hearing is set for Aug. 17 on the motion of a preliminary injunction pending the disposition of his suit for a declaratory judgment that he is entitled to a passport.

The motion was filed after Robeson had held two conferences with top level officials of the State department and had been assured that the issuance of his passport would be considered.

A WEEK LATER after the Department had had ample time to make a decision it reported that the request was still under advisement.

It was then that Robeson, through his attorneys, took court action.

In filing the motion for a preliminary injunction, Robeson stated that unless the State Department is enjoined it will continue its illegal refusal to issue him a passport and prevent him from leaving the country.

He pointed out that withholding his passport is depriving him from making a living at his profession of singing and acting.

He had informed State department officials earlier that he had contracts ready to be signed for a series of concerts in England, had been asked to play Othello in London, and to make a film version of the Shakespearean classic to be made in Moscow. He has also been invited to do concerts in Europe, China, India, Israel and other countries.

ROBESON has held passports continually from 1922-1950. Mrs. Ruth Shipley, who was then director of the passport office, informed him in August, 1950 that his passport had been revoked.

She claimed that the State Department had taken such action because it considered that Robeson's travels abroad at that time would be contrary to the best interest of the United States.

In December, 1950, Robeson instituted a suit in the U. S. District court in Washington against the State department for what he termed unwarranted violation of his rights and privileges.

In April, 1951, the court dismissed the suit on the grounds that it had no jurisdiction in the case. The U. S. Court of Appeals dismissed the case as moot on the theory that the passport had then expired and no application for its renewal or for a new one had been filed.

On Jan. 31, 1952, the State department prevented Robeson from traveling in Canada even though a passport is not needed to go there. He also has been prevented from going to Mexico or the West Indies where passports are not necessary.

HIS APPLICATIONS for passports in January and July, 1953, and again in July, 1954, were all denied. Since Robeson's fight began, others have appealed to the courts to have passports issued. These suits have resulted in a recent decision by the U. S. Court of Appeals which affirmed that "the right to travel is a natural right."

Patience! You Have Only 300 Years To Wait

TOKYO (ANP)—William Faulkner, Nobel prize winning author, has predicted there will be no Negro race in the United States in 300 years.

Faulkner said the race will "vanish" by merging with the rest of the country's population over a period of time.

In the meantime, he said, it is up to the Negro to have tolerance, intelligence, patience and be sensible in his attack on problems growing out of racial differences.

Faulkner said such advice was not for the white man, adding that the white man "is frantic, he's afraid, he's fighting."

Apparently Faulkner's prediction of oblivion for the Negro race in America did not take into account the fact that the Negro percentage of the population is rising, especially in areas like his native Mississippi, where the Negro population is growing at a rate 300 times that of the white population.

Negro Voters Ineligible In Miss. Primary

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP)—The 200 voters of Mound Bayou, all-Negro town in Mississippi, were told their votes would not be counted in the state's Democratic primary.

Mound Bayou Mayor Ben Green said he received the information in a note accompanying the ballot box. The citizens of the town ignored the ban and voted in last Tuesday's gubernatorial primary.

There was no indication of how the few Negroes who went to the polls in Mississippi cast their votes. They had the choice of choosing among five candidates who were unanimously agreed that there would be no integration in the state.

The election produced one major surprise: the defeat of former Gov. Fielding Wright, founder of the 1948 States Rights Party, who finished third.

Paul Johnson, in his third try for the governorship, and Atty. Gen. J. P. Coleman will face each other in a run-off primary Aug. 23.

The slim Negro vote had no effect on the outcome of the race. A constitutional amendment and the activities of the white Citizens Councils effectively blocked Negro voting throughout the state.

Meanwhile, Green has indicated he will initiate proceedings to have Mound Bayou's vote counted.

Dental Association Installs New Officers

CHICAGO (ANP)—The National Dental Association ended its 42nd annual convention here with the installation of Dr. J. Edward Bowman of Washington, D. C., as president for 1956.

Other officers are Drs. L. Leroy Gates, Darby, Ia., president-elect; J. A. Jackson, Hampton, Va., secretary-treasurer; Charles M. Thompson, Chicago, vice-president; and Charles E. Williams, Chicago, chairman of the executive board. The group voted to meet in Hampton, Va., next year.

Highlight of the meeting was a public session Tuesday night in the Wendell Phillips High School auditorium at which greetings from President Eisenhower were read.

The President's greeting was followed by a similar message from Mayor Daley of Chicago and greetings from prominent Chicago citizens, many of whom were present as guests of the dentists.

The guest speaker, Dr. T. W. Tobin of Mobile, Ala., discussed longevity through dental service, especially for youth by attention to health habits during attendance at school.

A TELECAST of new dental procedures was presented Tuesday and Thursday with Drs. E. C. Small, Charles M. Thompson, and Howard Shepard, all of Chicago; Dr. M. R. Dean, of Washington, and Dr. William Springer of Cincinnati participating. Many of the dentists' wives registered as members of the Ladies Auxiliary, which held separate sessions concurrent with the Association.

Some 500 guests attended a garden party at the home of Mrs. Lavinia Brown and members of the auxiliary attended a luncheon in the Wedgewood Room at which the latest fashions were shown.

A president's dinner was held Thursday night at the Trianon Ballroom and was followed by a semi-formal dance.

REP. ADAM POWELL OFF TO MEDIATE IN NEAR-EAST

EVERETT LEE, renowned symphony orchestra conductor, has led the Louisville Symphony and the Philadelphia Concert Orchestra. He now conducts at Brooklyn's Academy of Music.

"Recently I switched to Luckies... they taste better!"

"I'm a critical smoker," says symphony orchestra conductor Everett Lee. "Recently I switched to Luckies and I've made them my permanent brand. The taste I get from Luckies is a lot better than I've found in any of the others."

Luckies taste better for good reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!
